Mr. Espinosa,

As a resident of Los Feliz area, I also agree with the Los Feliz Improvement Association's position to oppose the proposed sign ordinances listed above that would allow commercial signage, banners, and signs in city parks & facilities.

We are bombarded with commercial advertisements everywhere we go in a daily basis, and this is the biggest reasons why we moved to Los Feliz area near the Griffith Park--to be near the nature that is serene within the big urban city.

The citizens of Los Angeles need a place where they can go and just
