Ordinance Overview

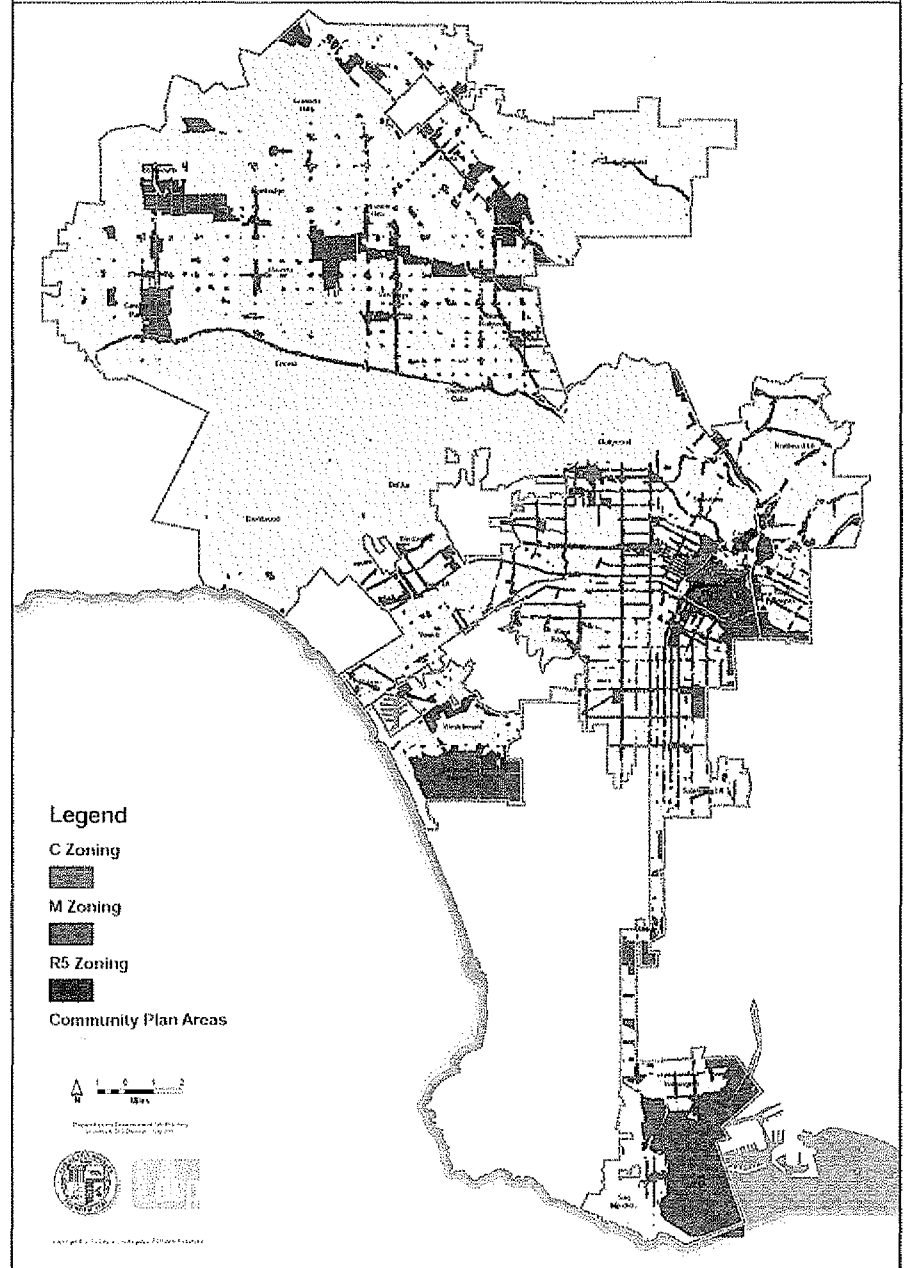

- Limits new Sign Districts to regional hubs of commerce and transport
- Requires “one for one” off-site sign reduction, or half that plus community benefits
- Increases penalties to improve code compliance
- Provides the City’s first specific regulations for digital displays
- Contains numerous technical refinements to improve clarity, enforceability and legal defensibility

Areas Currently Eligible for a Sign District

- Every commercial and industrial parcel in the city
- R5 parcels in greater downtown area

Areas Eligible for Sign Districts (current)

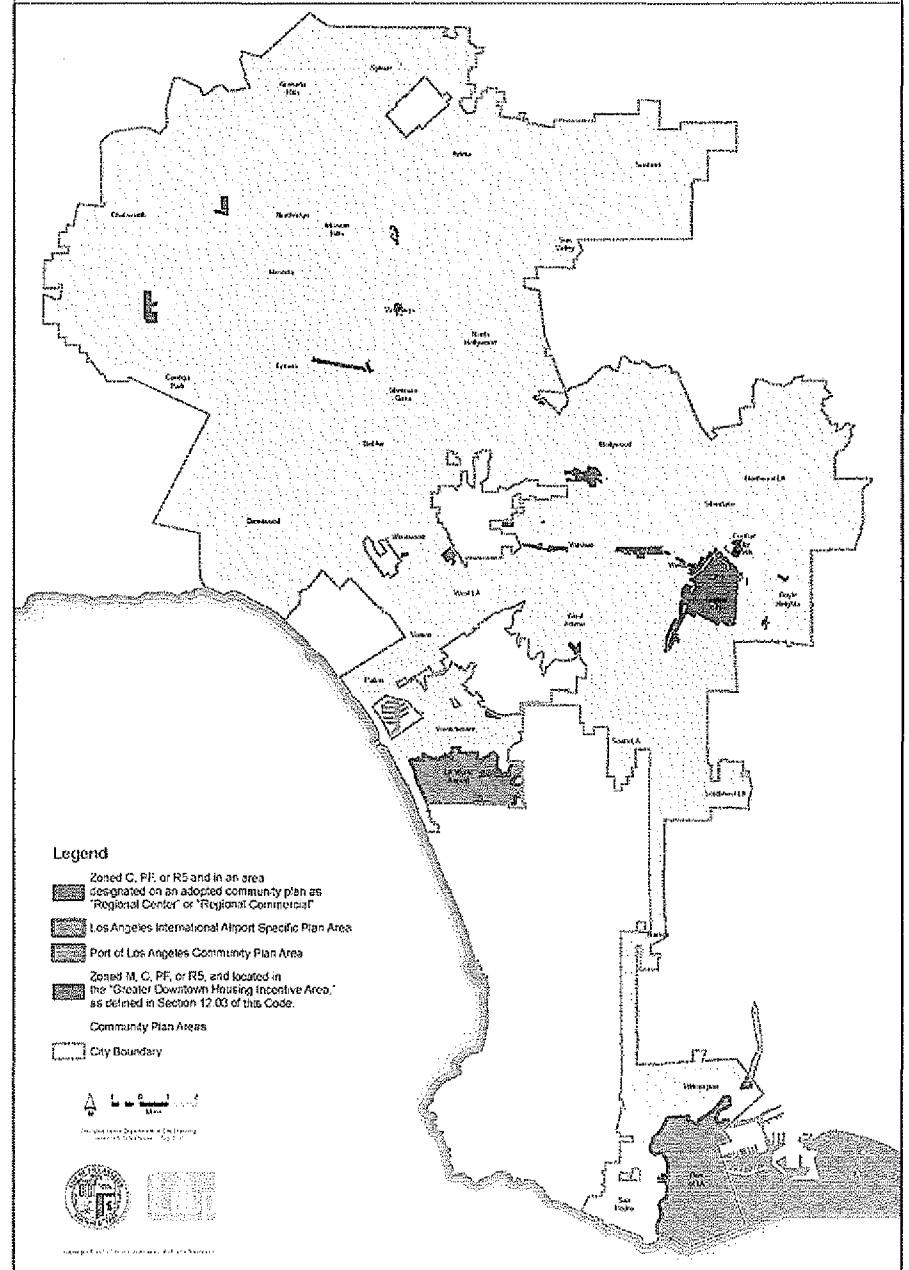

Areas Proposed to be Eligible for Sign Districts

- Regional hubs of commerce and transport
- 90% reduction in eligible areas from current code

Technical Corrections

- Reviewed 7 new letters received since last hearing
- Requested changes are relatively minor in nature, and do not warrant further delaying ordinance
- Technical corrections made from last hearing:
 - Window signs: removed a proposed clause regarding merchandise in windows
 - Temporary signs on temporary constructions walls: added RAS zones
 - Updated section references in “grandfathering” section
 - Corrected “Grandfathering” list

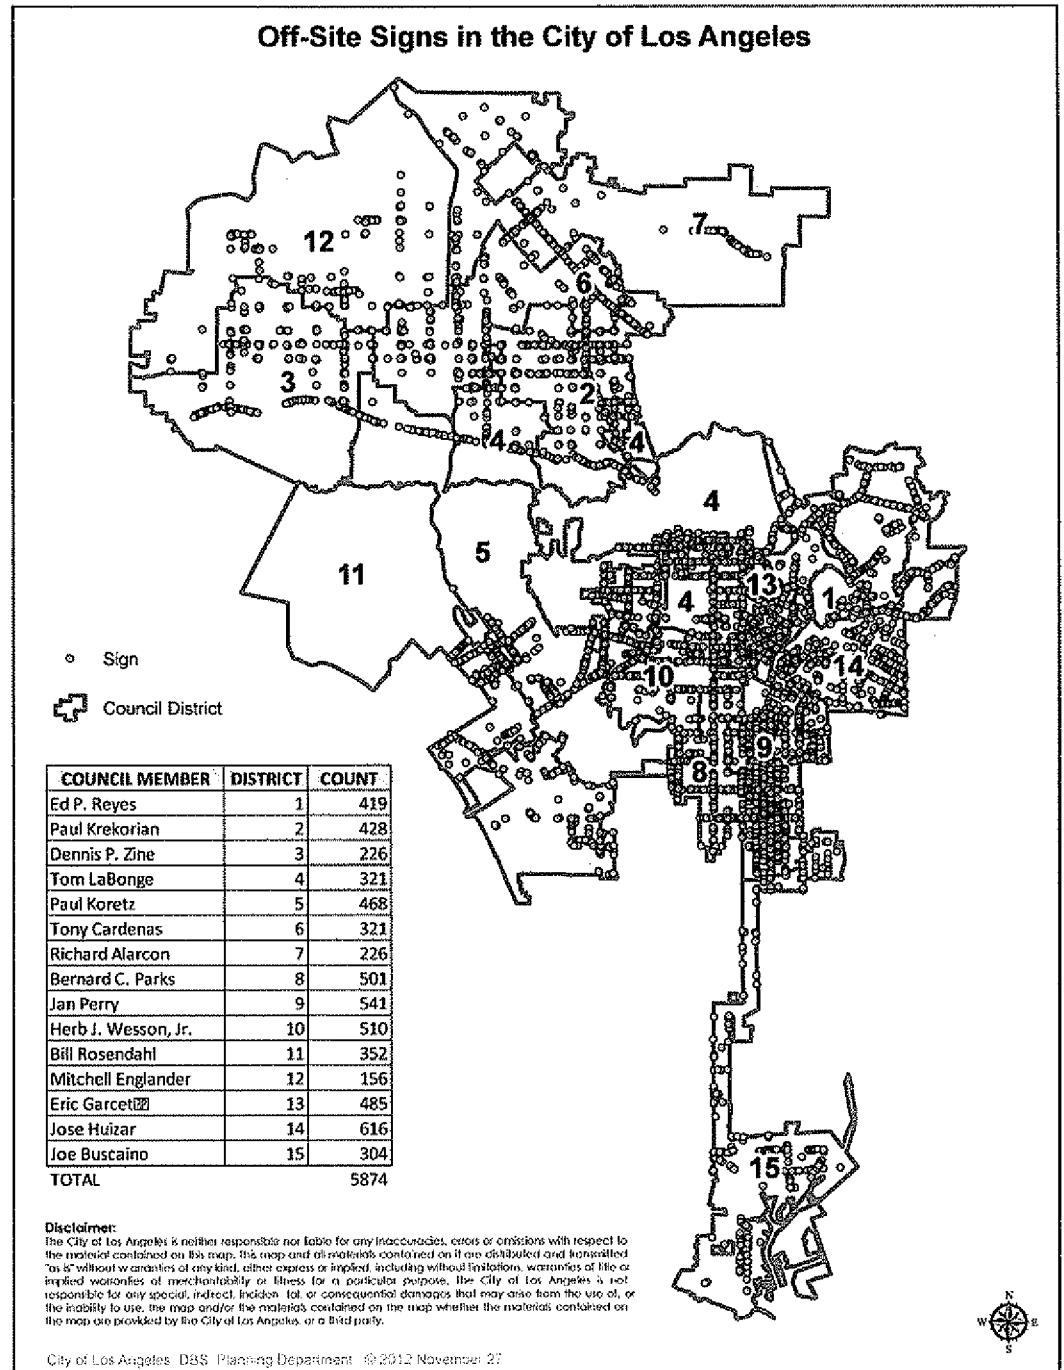

Topics for Discussion

- Digital displays / Summit Media court ruling
- Off-site signs in parks
- Administrative Civil Penalties

Citywide Map of Off-Site Signs

- Total of 5,874 off-site signs
- Hundreds in each Council District
- Updated DBS data can assist in sign reduction

Staff Recommendations

- Adopt the report dated December 4, 2012
- Approve the proposed ordinance and direct the City Attorney to review it for form and legality
