Key Findings: Lessons from Major American Cities

- 1. FUNDAMENTALS of the local economy must be very strong and regionally and internationally competitive
- 2. LEADERSHIP from Chief Executives must be focused citywide
- 3. RESOURCES for economic development must be commensurate to the mission
- 4. FLEXIBILITY of the economic development organization and operation is essential
- 5. HUMAN TALENT working on economic development must be highly skilled, entrepreneurial, and incentivized to succeed

Key Findings: Existing Conditions & Stakeholder Aspirations

- 1. STRONG FUNDAMENTALS are consistent with scale of nation's 2nd largest city
- 2. WIDESPREAD CONSENSUS that organizational change is needed to support improved economic development outcomes
- 3. NEED FOR CITYWIDE FOCUS and economic development prioritization
- 4. A CRITICAL GAP in economic development in the wake of CRA/LA dissolution
- 5. A FRAGMENTED APPARATUS that is reactive in nature, with mismatched responsibilities and resources
