Declaration of Inclusive, Peaceful and Constructive Communication

Our Means of communication is Inclusive.

The Nature of our communication is Peaceful.

Our Purpose for communication is Constructive.

1) Our means of communication is inclusive.

The General Assembly is the body that makes decisions for the OccupyLA movement as a whole. Anyone seeking to learn about these decisions is invited to attend the open General Assembly process of We the People. All individuals or groups involved in OccupyLA are free within their inherent rights to speak and act as they so choose. We honor diversity of thought and autonomous action as a point of great strength.

We invite all who desire to communicate with the OccupyLA movement to come participate in our open General Assembly. Our Occupation and the General Assembly, with its deliberative and participatory principles, is a legitimate and constitutionally recognized proceeding. Those seeking to inform, influence or negotiate with the OccupyLA movement must understand that the dignified way to do so is the open General Assembly process.

2) The nature of our communication is peaceful.

Every General Assembly begins with a reaffirmation of OccupyLA's shared commitment to non-violence a core principle of our movement. The global Occupy movement continues to be spoken to in the language of violence. We assert that no one has the right, especially a public servant, to imply, initiate or participate in a use of violence or unlawful force in response to an assembly of peaceful people.

We recognize, as Martin Luther King Junior said, "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere." Though our brothers and sisters around the world continue to be met with violence, we reaffirm our commitment to a language of powerful non-violence and fierce compassion that understands the urgency of now.

3) The purpose of our communication is constructive.

We the People have peacefully assembled in public space, seeking, at minimum, a full redress of grievances for the government's criminal mistreatment of the people and fraudulent abdication of fiduciary responsibilities in large part to the interests of exploitative corporations and weaponized banks.

Elements within City Hall and the Police, which we know to be fused with 'Homeland Security,' have said that they want to "help" us find an exit strategy. In fact, We the People are in the process of opening a window of opportunity (i.e. an exit strategy) for our public servants who desire a way out of the high corruption that we have allowed our governments to become. This includes public servants acting in good faith under difficult pressures, as well as those deeply disloyal to the spirit of their oaths and to the lives, liberties and general welfare of We the People.

Set in stone on the south face of City Hall, these words of Cicero are clear to see, "He that violates his oath profanes the divinity of faith itself." Though some of our words may sound confrontational, we are humbled by the words of Martin Luther King Junior, "Non-violent resistance does not seek to humiliate or defeat the opponent but to win his friendship and understanding."

We invite all people everywhere to occupy the ethical depths and creative horizons of their hearts and minds, and come join with their fellow companions of good faith assembled here in the open. Together we can cooperate to peacefully arrest the ongoing corruption and criminality, and give ourselves a possibility to re-imagine and rebuild our homes, communities, nations and world.

Para Todos Todo, Para Nosotros Nada: | For Everyone, Everything, For Us, Nothing |

As a collective, | Occupy Los Angeles would like to express | their rejection of the City of Los Angeles' alleged proposal | that we leave City Hall by November 28th, 2011, | in exchange for an apparently now | rescinded offer of a 10,000 square foot building, | farmland and 100 SRO | beds for the homeless.

Occupy Los Angeles believes | that as part of a global movement | advocating direct, participatory democracy, | and challenging economic and social injustices, | our position is such that we cannot, | in all good faith, | accept further material benefit from City Hall | at the taxpayer's expense | without seriously compromising our beliefs, | our desire for global change, | and our commitment to our inherent human rights | to free speech and assembly | protected in this country by First Amendment Rights. | The 1 percent should be paying for | any services used | by the Occupy Movement, not taxpayers.

In the spirit of inclusivity and transparency | which is so dear to our movement, | Occupy Los Angeles extends an invitation | to Mayor Villaraigosa and the City Council | to attend our General Assemblies | at the City Hall Occupation | if he wishes to discuss these and other matters | in a direct, democratic and horizontal way. | Mayor Villaraigosa must speak out | against the violent actions towards our brothers and sisters, | declare the actions of other cities to be unjust, | and stand before us equally at a General Assembly. | Occupy Los Angeles believes that until this happens, | we should have no more closed-door discussions | regarding our continuing occupation of City Hall.

The City Council – in line with government in general – | is an authority which is more accountable | to developers and corporations | than the public. | The very act of the Los Angeles City Council | requesting the physical removal | of Los Angeles Occupiers without redressing the grievances | which were specifically referenced | in the inclusion of our adopted | 'Declaration of the Occupation of New York City', | and in the City Council's | '1st Amendment Rights / Occupy Los Angeles / | Responsible Banking Resolution' | — is in effect supporting the removal | of all Occupations from public space | by any means. | We cannot negotiate with | such an institution | without undermining | our sister occupations across the globe | who are suffering from oppressive force | and attacks upon their inherent | human rights | to free speech and assembly, | protected in this country | under the First Amendment. | We refer here to episodes in Oakland, | Boston, New York, Portland, | UC Davis and San Francisco, | to name but a few. | We refer to those further afield, | in Tahrir Square in Egypt, | in Madrid, Greece, London and more. | Teargas, pepper spray, beatings, jail, | suppression and intimidation | have been used as a coercive method | of silencing our movement | and our desire for global change.

We reject outright | the City's attempts to lure us out | of City Hall and into negotiations | by offering us nebulous, | non-transparent | and unconfirmed offers | which fail to even begin | to address our local grievances. | We will continue to occupy this space, | in solidarity with our global movement, | until the forces of the few are forced to capitulate | to the power of the people.

When the following grievances have been addressed | – grievances which we have agreed upon | as a movement | through our General Assembly | as advancing our cause | and providing for the people of Los Angeles | – we as a movement will be happy | to initiate dialogue | with the Mayor and Los Angeles City Council. | An office space of 10,000 square feet | would not have addressed these grievances. | While the grievances listed below are localized, | we believe
