PUBLIC SAFETY

MOTION

During the past two years, the Los Angeles City Council in conjunction with the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD), the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD), as well as the courts and various other regional government agencies and community groups, including Public Counsel, ACLU of Southern California and the Community Rights Campaign have been collaborating with the LAPD to revise existing LAPD procedures aimed at reducing the number of daytime curfew tickets written to students, particularly African American and Latino students.

According to the LAPD and the Los Angeles School Police statistics, police issued more than 47,000 tickets from 2004 to 2009 - 88% of them to African American and Latino students, who make up only 74% of Los Angeles students. With curfew fines often times costing more than $240 and requiring students and their families to miss additional time from school and work to go to court to resolve them, in addition to schools losing Average Daily Attendance (ADA) state revenue from students missing school to attend court hearing, revising Los Angeles Municipal Code (LAMC) Section 45.04, which imposes a daytime curfew on youth under the age of 18, would substantially increase school attendance and prevent a considerable number of students from entering into the juvenile justice system.

Los Angeles Municipal Code Section 45.04 states that "it is unlawful for any minor ... to be present in or upon the public streets, highways, roads, alleys, parks, playgrounds, or other public grounds, public places, public buildings, places or amusement and eating places, vacant lots or any place open to the public during the hours of the day when the school. .. is in session ..." As a result of the collaboration between the LAPD, City Council and the community, in April of this year, the LAPD issued an internal directive that directed LAPD ticket task forces to generally not cite students during the first hour of classes, directs police to help students get back to school rather than ticketing them, and makes other changes to ensure that students stay in school and acquire an education.

Given the fact that there are dozens of reasons why students are late or truant, ranging from emotional and mental health problems, school environment, academic challenges, special education needs, economic pressures, substance abuse, physical or emotional abuse in the home, and lack of adequate transportation, revising and/or ending LAMC Section 45.04 would further remove financial hardships on families and help students obtain the education and guidance necessary to become productive residents of Los Angeles. In light of the most recent research confirming that students who appear in juvenile court are almost four times as likely to drop out of school — which is associated with a number of negative outcomes, including unemployment and increased criminal involvement — minimizing court involvement of youth by instead connecting them to resources will substantially benefit the students, the community and the City.

I THEREFORE MOVE that the Los Angeles Police Department, with the assistance of the City Attorney, be instructed to report to the City Council on amending, as underlined and striked through on the following pages, Los Angeles Municipal Code (LAMC) Section 45.04 within the next 60 days.

SEC. 45.04. DAYTIME CURFEW RESTRICTIONS FOR MINORS.

(Title and Section Amended by Ord. No. 180,173, Eff. 10/5/08.)

- (a) Curfew. It is unlawful for any minor under the age of 18, who is subject to compulsory education or to compulsory continuation education, alone or in concert with others, to be present in or upon the public streets, highways, roads, alleys, parks, playgrounds, or other public grounds, public places, public buildings, places or amusement and eating places, vacant lots or any place open to the public during the hours of the day when the school, which the minor would normally attend, is in session, on days when that school is in session. This section does not apply to public sidewalks immediately adjacent to school grounds, school entrances to school grounds, or school grounds. This section is intended to apply only to minors who are intentionally avoiding school, or are loitering in public places at times when they are required to be in school.
 - (b) Exceptions. The provisions of this section shall not apply when:
- (1) The minor is accompanied by his or her parent, guardian, other adult person authorized by the parent or guardian having the care or custody of the minor; or
- (2) The minor is on an emergency errand directed by his or her parent, guardian or other adult person having the care or custody of the minor; or
- (3) The minor is attending or going directly to or returning directly home from a public meeting or a school sporting event, dance or activity; or
 - (3)(4) The minor is going directly to or coming directly from their place of gainful employment; or
 - (4)(5) The minor is going directly to or coming directly from a medical appointment; or
- (5)(6) The minor has permission to leave campus for lunch and has in his or her possession a valid, school-issued off-campus permit; or
- (6)(7) The presence of the minor in one or more of the places identified in Subsection (a) is connected with or required with respect to a business, trade, profession or occupation in which the minor is lawfully engaged; or
- (7)(8) The minor is involved in an emergency such as a fire, natural disaster, automobile accident, a situation requiring immediate action to prevent serious bodily injury or loss of life, or any unforeseen combination of circumstances or the resulting state, which calls for immediate action; or
 - (8)(9) The minor is in a motor vehicle involved in interstate travel; or
- (9)(10) The minor is authorized to be absent from his or her school pursuant to the provisions of California Education Code Section 48205, or any other applicable state or federal law.
- (11) The minor is traveling on his or her way to school regardless of whether the minor is tardy for school. If the minor is cited within a 3 block radius of the school within the first 60 minutes of school, this establishes a rebuttable presumption that the minor is traveling on his or her way to school.

- (c) Enforcement. Before taking any action to enforce the provisions of this section, police officers shall ask the apparent offenders age and reason for being in the public place during curfew hours. The officer shall not issue a citation or make an arrest under this section unless the officer reasonably believes that an offense has occurred, that the minor is required to be in school, and that, based on any responses and other circumstances, no exceptions to this section apply. The officer shall articulate the justification, identify the time when the officer first encountered the minor, and provide the minor's stated age in the description portion of the citation. The failure to assess whether one of the exceptions enumerated in subsection (b) applies or to complete the narrative portion is grounds for dismissal of the citation.
- (d) Violation. Each violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute a separate offense and shall be an infraction unless the minor requests that a petition be filed under Section 601 and 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (e) Penalties for Violation. Any person convicted of willfully violating this ordinance is guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine not exceeding $250.00 and/or perform community service for a total time not to exceed 20 hours over a period not to exceed 30 days, during times other than his or her hours of school attendance or employment.
- (d) Penalties for Violation. A violation of this section is an infraction. Notwithstanding any other section, a violation of this section shall not be punishable by a fine. For any citation issued under this section, the citation shall be dismissed, if prior to the scheduled court appearance date, the minor submits proof of participation in a community or school resource-based program, including but not limited to a tutoring, mentoring, credit recovery, or after-school program, or a Teen or Peer Court, if one is available. Any citation issued under this section shall specify the steps a minor may take to obtain a dismissal of the citation.
- (e) Data Collection. The Los Angeles Police Department shall publish bi-annual statistics regarding the number of minors cited under this section, along with the location and time of the citation and the age, ethnicity, race and gender of the minors cited.
- (f) Severability of Provisions. If any severable provision of this ordinance or any application thereof is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the ordinance which can be given effect notwithstanding such invalidity.

Los Angeles Neighborhood Council Coalition

To Whom It May Concern:

At its October 1, 2011 meeting the Los Angeles Neighborhood Council Coalition was presented with various statistics regarding what appears to be the uneven enforcement of the City of Los Angeles anti-truancy ordinance (LAMC Section 45.04), and with facts that indicate the current method of enforcement does little to help curb truancy.

The neighborhood council stakeholders present were also informed regarding the motion of Councilmembers Cardenes and Parks (CF #09-2255-S1) to have the Los Angeles Police Department, in conjunction with the City Attorney review and report back the city council on certain proposed amendments to the ordinance.

A motion was unanimously passed by those neighborhood council stakeholders present that the Los Angeles Neighborhood Council Coalition support the motion to amend LAMC Section 45.04.

Sincerely,

Chair, LANC Coalition

Regarding: CF-2255-S1

Our Sunland-Tujunga community has specific issues regarding egregious monetary fines against our students and their parents.

Many of those tickets were given to our students for truancy, when in reality they were "tardy" instead of "Truant." If, indeed, the student is truant, we will only support community service for a certain amount of offenses in lieu of monetary fines.

We want to provide our students with the best education and learning environment possible and extreme punishment presents a hardship and deterrent to that goal.

At the October 26, 2011 meeting of the Sunland-Tujunga Neighborhood Council the board voted unanimous to support Councilman Cardenas' motion to amend LAMC Section 45.04.

We would appreciate your assistance in resolving this problem for the students in Los Angeles. Please let us know how we can help to move forward on this issue.

Sincerely,

Sunland-Tujunga Neighborhood Council

Board Member Resolutions For Action

10. Mr. Zimmer, Ms. LaMotte - Resolution on Expanding Enrollment and Equal Access through LAUSD Choices (Noticed December 19, 2011)

Whereas, The Los Angeles Unified School District has struggled with declining enrollment for the last five years;

Whereas, There has been no comprehensive strategy for addressing declining enrollment nor has there been a comprehensive strategy for growing successful LAUSD programs;

Whereas, LAUSD has no comprehensive outreach or promotion strategy for magnet, pilot, dual immersion, international baccalaureate, Schools for Advanced Studies or other programs;

Whereas, There remain questions and concerns about access and equity in GATE testing and identification;

Whereas, There are close to 20,000 students currently on magnet waiting lists and close to 5,000 of these students are currently enrolled in charter schools, private schools or other districts; and

Whereas, current LAUSD policy allows families to apply to only one magnet program; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That within 60 days the Superintendent submit a comprehensive plan for expanding enrollment in LAUSD by at least 5 percent over the next three years;

Resolved further, That the Superintendent work with the Governing Board of Education of the Los Angeles Unified School District, The LA COMPACT, our labor partners and our private sector partners to identify funding sources to help secure resources for an expanding enrollment campaign;

Resolved further, That the Superintendent initiate a comprehensive review of GATE testing and identification within LAUSD that disaggregates numbers of students tested and identified by significant demographic categories, local district, board district and zip code;

Resolved further, That the Superintendent initiate a similar review of magnet school outreach, enrollment and locations of available programs by significant demographic categories, local district, board district and zip code; and be it finally Resolved, That the Office of Integration report back to the Board within 120 days about the risks and benefits of creating a "three choice" magnet application process for the 2012-13 school year.

Motion Requested by the Superintendent

11. Resolution to Grant Another Designated Period for Two Years Additional Service Credit for Eligible CalPERS Employees in the Office of the General Counsel

Whereas, Los Angeles Unified School District participates in the Public Employees' Retirement System; and

Bd. of Ed. Regular Meeting 12/23/11 post (rev)

Rev. Order of Business, 1 p.m., 01-10-12

Whereas, Los Angeles Unified School District desires to provide another designated period for Two Years Additional Service Credit, Section 20904, based on the contract amendment included in said contract, which provided for Section 20904, Two Years Additional Service Credit, for eligible miscellaneous members; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Los Angeles Unified School District does seek to add another designated period, and does hereby authorize this Resolution, indicating a desire to add a designated period from January 16, 2012 through April 12, 2012 for miscellaneous members eligible to retire in the Office of the General Counsel.

12. Resolution to Grant Another Designated Period for Two Years Additional Service Credit for Eligible CalSTRS Employees in the Office of the General Counsel

Whereas, Education Code section 22714, 22714.5, 44929, 44929.1, 87488, and 87488.1 provides that a school district may permit members of the California State Teachers' Retirement System who retire to receive up to two years of additional service credit or two years of additional service credit plus two years of age at the time of retirement;

Whereas, The employing school district shall pay to the California State Teachers' Retirement Fund an amount equal to the actuarial present value cost of the additional service credit, and a fee to cover administrative costs; and

Whereas the Los Angeles Unified School District wishes to make this program available to members eligible for retirement; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this program is hereby adopted; and, be it finally Resolved, That the period during which eligible employees may retire under this program is designated as January 16, 2012 through April 12, 2012.

Board Member Resolutions For Initial Announcement

13. Ms. García, Ms. Martinez – Resolution to Examine Increasing Choice and Removing Boundaries for Neighborhood Schools (For Action January 17, 2012)

Whereas, The Governing Board of the Los Angeles Unified School District is responsible for ensuring that children educated in the District have the opportunity to receive a quality education; to earn a meaningful, college preparatory high school diploma; and to graduate college-prepared and career-ready;

Whereas, Every child is unique with special talents, strengths and needs, and school placement decisions must therefore be made in the best educational needs of each individual student, addressing such factors as proximity to home, areas of academic interest, and interest in specific educational supports;

Whereas, Research validates that parental involvement in public schools is a key factor in producing measurable gains in student academic success, closing the achievement gap, reducing dropout rates, increasing graduation rates, promoting positive adolescent behavior, and furthering student's emotional development;

Whereas, A parent/guardian has the right to demand what his/her child needs to succeed in school, and should have the right to consider school atmosphere, class size, test scores, before-and after-school programs, specific academic focus, and proximity to the home, when deciding where a student will obtain his/her education;

Whereas, In-district models for open enrollment policies illustrate the ways in which they support accelerated academic achievement. These include the Belmont Zone of Choice, which offers 17 different pilot schools and Small Learning Communities from which incoming 9th graders and their families may choose, and the Kennedy Zone of Choice, which offers six small schools from which students and their families may choose; and

Whereas, The current Open Enrollment Transfer process provides opportunities for families to choose District schools outside of their attendance boundaries, but is unnecessarily limited in the number of students that may participate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Governing Board of the Los Angeles Unified School District instructs the Superintendent to develop a plan that would consider removing boundaries for schools in order to give parents the flexibility for their children to take advantage of all seats in high-performing schools, and, be it finally

Resolved, That the Superintendent will return to the Board within 90 days with alternatives and recommendations for a new Open Enrollment Policy that will serve all students District-wide and will allow all students and their families to select the school that best meets students' educational needs.

14. Ms. García, Ms. Martinez, Mr. Zimmer – Resolution to Support the Motion to Amend the Daytime Curfew Law (For Action January 17, 2012)

Whereas, The Los Angeles City Council Motion (Motion) by Councilmember Tony Cardenas seeks to amend the daytime curfew law so that it is consistent with recent policy directives by the Los Angeles School Police Department (LASPD) and the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) regarding proper enforcement;

Whereas, The LASPD policy directive and the commitments clarifying the scope and application of the daytime curfew reinforce the Los Angeles Unified School District and the Superintendent's commitment to reducing the cycle of student "push out";

Whereas, The Motion amendments seek to narrow the scope of the curfew law and protect students' rights by placing explicit restrictions on the ability to ticket students who are traveling to school, eliminating the imposition of fines as a penalty, requiring LAPD data collection and reporting, and restoring a freedom of speech exception;

Whereas, The District is committed to improving regular student attendance and recognizes the multitude of evidence-based explanations for student tardiness and/or truancy, which, according to reports issued by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, can include issues related to school climate and/or the ability to meet the diverse needs of students, emotional and social factors of the student and their family, economic circumstances (such as the lack of reliable and/or affordable transportation), and student variables (such as mental health, substance abuse, special education, and physical health issues);

Whereas, The District has in place a comprehensive set of attendance policies and procedures, consistent with federal, state and District requirements, that is designed to assist school personnel with understanding and addressing student attendance issues, like truancy and tardiness;

Whereas, A welcoming school climate, implemented attendance procedures, and attendance incentive programs, supported by the District's Discipline Foundation Policy of School-Wide Positive Behavior Support, adopted by the Board in 2007 and which applies to every school in the District, promotes improved student attendance;

Whereas, According to the LAPD and LASPD data, more than 47,000 tickets were issued to students from 2004-2009 under the daytime curfew law;

Whereas, Law enforcement officers issuing tickets to students who are on their way to, or arriving at, school has the unintended consequence of deterring or preventing some students from going to school;

Whereas, Daytime curfew tickets issued to District students result in students missing one or more days of school to attend court hearings, such that students lose additional, valuable instructional time and the District loses substantial Average Daily Attendance (ADA) state revenue over the course of a school year;

Whereas, The Youth WorkSource Centers have been highly successful in providing services to youth and have become a nationally recognized leader in implementing youth programs in the seven Los Angeles City planning areas. The Centers are prepared to be an alternative for students who are out-of-school rather than the traditional criminal justice system approach; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the District shall work together with the Los Angeles City Council, Los Angeles Police Department, the Community Development Department, the Countywide Truancy Task Force, and the Los Angeles School Police Department to develop an evidence-based alternative to increase student attendance and intervene appropriately when students are truant. The Los Angeles Unified School District and CDD are in the process of soliciting qualified entities to manage Youth WorkSource Centers that will serve as an alternative to daytime curfew citations in Los Angeles.

Resolved further, That the District shall work together with parent groups, community organizations, and public interest law firms to explore effective methods of addressing the issue of truancy and promoting student attendance through the existing School-Wide Positive Behavior Support policy and other evidence-based school- interventions;

Resolved further, That the Superintendent or his designee will continue to ensure that data related to daytime curfew tickets is routinely collected and disaggregated and that training of LASPD officers aligns with and supports the evidence-based practice of developing relationships between students and officers that promote attendance; and, be it finally

Resolved, That the Governing Board of the Los Angeles Unified School District supports City Councilmember Tony Cárdenas' Motion (Supported by Councilmember Bernard Parks) to Amend the Daytime Curfew Law in efforts to best serve our youth.

Talking Points: The School-To-Prison Pipeline

The school-to-prison pipeline is one of the most important civil rights challenges facing our nation today.

- The school-to-prison pipeline refers to the national trend of criminalizing, rather than educating, our nation's children.
- The pipeline encompasses the growing use of zero-tolerance discipline, school-based arrests, disciplinary alternative schools, and secured detention to marginalize our most at-risk youth and deny them access to education.

Zero-tolerance disciplinary policies are often the first step in a child's journey through the pipeline.

- Zero-tolerance policies impose severe discipline on students without regard to individual circumstances. Under these policies, children have been expelled for giving Midol to a classmate, bringing household goods (including a kitchen knife) to school to donate to Goodwill, and bringing scissors to class for an art project.
- Even the American Bar Association has condemned zero-tolerance policies as inherently unjust: "zero tolerance has become a one-size-fits-all solution to all the problems that schools confront. It has redefined students as criminals, with unfortunate consequences...Unfortunately, most current [zero-tolerance] policies eliminate the common sense that comes with discretion and, at great cost to society and to children and families, do little to improve school safety."

 There is no evidence that zero-tolerance policies make schools safer or improve student behavior. On the contrary, research suggests that the overuse of suspensions and expulsions may actually increase the likelihood of later criminal misconduct.²

Schools today rely on law enforcement, rather than teachers and administrators, to handle minor school misconduct.

- Growing numbers of school districts employ full-time police officers, or "school resource officers," to patrol middle and high school hallways. With tittle or no training in working with youth, these officers approach youth as they would adult "perps" on the street, rather than children at school.
- Children are far more likely to be arrested at school than they were a generation ago. The vast majority of these arrests are for non-violent offenses such as "disruptive conduct" or "disturbance of the peace."³
- Children as young as five years old are being led out of classrooms in handcuffs for acting out or throwing temper tantrums.
 Students have been arrested for throwing an eraser at a teacher, breaking a pencil, and having rap lyrics in a locker. These children do not belong in jail.
- The explosion of school-based arrests cannot be attributed to an increase in youth violence. Between 1992 and 2002, school violence actually dropped by about half. Despite the fear generated by a handful of highly publicized school shootings, schools remain the safest places for young people.

• Resources that could be put towards improving under-resourced schools are instead used for security. School districts spend millions of dollars for police officers and security personnel, despite the fact that these very schools are the ones lacking basic educational resources like textbooks and libraries.

The rise in suspensions, expulsions, and school-based arrests may be due, in part, to the rise of high-stakes testing.

• As a result of test-based accountability regimes such as the No Child Left Behind Act, schools have an incentive to push out low-performing students to boost overall test scores. One study found that schools meted out longer suspensions to students who performed poorly on standardized tests than to high-performing students for similar offenses. This "punishment gap" grew substantially during the period of time when standardized tests were administered, indicating that schools may use "selective discipline" to keep low-performing students out of school during testing days.

We must demand accountability for the education of all students.

• In some states, students who have been expelled or suspended have no right to education at all. These children are left to fend for themselves, while the government and school districts are absolved of any responsibility for educating their most atrisk children.

L.A. School police to issue fewer truancy tickets

October 20, 2011 | 1:47 pm

The Los Angeles School Police Department has issued new rules aimed at reducing the number of truancy tickets written to students and focusing efforts instead on helping these students get to and remain in school.

The new policy, announced Thursday, is the latest change from a campaign to reform traditional school discipline that advocates say results in ethnic and racial profiling and hardships for students and families. The targeted old rules were part of a get-tough philosophy that included truancy sweeps, $250 tickets and mandatory court appearances that could potentially result in jail time for parents. Such measures, advocates said, can diminish time in school and ultimately increase the dropout rate.

The new approach is an about-face.

Under the guidelines, there will be no ticket "task forces" or law-enforcement truancy sweeps within the first 90 minutes of school and their use will be limited at other times. Officers also won't issue tickets on or near school grounds, where school authorities "should be responsible for students," according to a news release from advocates. The rules also emphasize "the requirement that police must ask students if they have a legitimate excuse before writing them a ticket."

"This notice ... reinforces the [police department's] commitment to support the superintendent's goals of attendance and graduation improvement, and reduce the cycle of student 'push out,' " Chief of Police Steven K. Zipperman said in a statement that accompanied the announcement. "Officers are reminded that they must inquire whether the student has a valid excuse for tardiness or absence."

He added that, whenever possible, officers should focus on getting a student to school. Nor is truency, by itself, a justification for "frisks, the use of handcuffs or physical restraints, and searches," Zipperman wrote.

"With this directive, school police officers will be a stronger partner with principals, students, parents and teachers to keep students on track within the educational environment by reducing court appearances," Zipperman said.

Data compiled by advocates indicates that Latino and black students receive a higher proportion of truancy tickets. Earlier, the Los Angeles Police Department modified its truency policies. Activists also have pushed to reduce the number of student suspensions and expulsions — a goal school district officials have

At the same time, teachers and administrators have expressed concerns about the new direction. They worry about losing disciplinary tools that help keep classrooms and campuses under control so that the majority of students don't have their learning disrupted.

A student who had been ticketed expressed his support for the changes.

"When you're dealing with real-life issues dragging you down and making you late to school, the last thing you need when you get there is to run into police treating you like a criminal and making you feel like there's no point to trying anymore," said Nabil Romero, a recent graduate from Roybal Learning Center, just west of downtown L.A.

Organizations involved in the truancy initiative include Community Rights Campaign, American Civil Liberties Union of Southern California, Public Counsel, CADRE, Youth Justice Coalition, and Children's Defense Fund.

Latino and black students receive the highest amount of truancy tickets. Maybe they should get their butts to school instead of selling drugs on a street corner. Any wonder why they have the highest numbers in prison?

Campaign to End Truancy / Tardy Ticketing

by Manuel Criollo (/user/manuel-criolle) on Sunday, March 9, 2008

The Community Rights Campaign is working to decriminalize truancy and tardiness. We demand an end to the LAPD and LA School Police Department practices of giving out $2.40 "truency tickets" (Inade/404) in Los Angeles schools to students who are late to school or truant. These tickets are one of the worst examples of zero tolerance policies that unfairly target students of color and contribute to "pre-prison" conditions in our schools.

Of the 47,000 tickets that have been issued by LAPD in the past 5 years:

- . 62% were given to Latino students
- 20% were given to Black students
- 7% were given to white students
 11% were given to other students

What law justifies these "truancy" tickets?

Los Angeles Municipal Code 45.04 ("LAMC") imposes a daytime curfew on youth under the age of 18 which gives the police power to detain and question youth for being off school grounds during school hours. Many Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) schools have incorporated truancy citations and fines as their school policy on absence and tardiness despite an existing education law that mandates the school to take several proactive steps prior to any court involvement that could result in monetary penalties.

There are no indicators that citations have a deterrent effect on truancy or juvenile crime.

Police "sweeps" on high school campuses

The majority of citations are given by LAPD during sweeps by a truancy task force. Sweeps often take place during morning hours around the radius of a school to pick up students who are on their way to school. Students can be picked up right outside or within blocks of the school campus immediately following the bell and be taken to a processing center to receive citations.

LAUSD already operates the largest school police department in the nation with Sheriffs, LAPD and private security forces petrolling various schools countywide. Truancy ticketing increases law enforcement and court involvement in school disciplinary measures.

Students in handcuffs, bags searched, entered into gang database

In our field surveys, students have reported broad searches, the use of handcuffs and police use of field identification cards for potential entry into the gang database.

The use of daytime curfew citations ultimately undermines the goal of promoting student attendance. It contributes to a hostile school climate and can create contentious relationships between schools and their communities. The process creates an additional stress for the overwhelmingly low-income families in LAUSD students miss additional school days and parents miss work for court.

Hey, LAPD, LASPD! Stop the ticketing now! We're pre-med, pre-job--not pre-prison! RELATED CATEGORIES

Los Angeles Municipal Code (45.04) is a daytime curfew law that requires all students to be in school from bell to bell. If found outside of school during those hours by a police officer, you can be fined up to $250 (plus added court fees). So If you ever get a ticket, here are a few things you should know in handling your case....

You must go to court with your parent/quardian or else you will be turned away.

You have the right to ask for a re-hearing! If you think the referee ruled unfairly, you have 10 days to submit a written request for a re-hearing. You must submit it in person (don't mail it!) to the same court where you had your first

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT to ask for your own individual hearing!
Your referee can decide to dismiss, reduce or offer alternatives to paying the full ticket. That is why it is important to have your own hearing so you can talk directly to the referee.

Be careful of clerical errors--if you do community service or Saturday class, your fine should be

If you miss your court date, a "failure to appear" will be issued. However, you can still take care of your ticket by going to court in person at 8:30am or 1:30pm (with your parent/guardian if you are still under 18). If you want to reschedule your court date prior it passing, you should call the court at the phone # listed on your ticket.

If you do not ever go to court for the ticket, the full amount of the fine remains with the court, who then notifies DMV to suspend your driver's license. This does not clear when you are 18.

Also, you cannot seal a juvenile delinquency record until all fines are paid—including traffic court

You cannot be suspended or expelled for being truant and tardy according to state educational

- (c) Enforcement. Before taking any action to enforce the provisions of this section, police officers shall ask the apparent offenders age and reason for being in the public place during curfew hours. The officer shall not issue a citation or make an arrest under this section unless the officer reasonably believes that an offense has occurred, that the minor is required to be in school, and that, based on any responses and other circumstances, no exceptions to this section apply. The officer shall articulate the justification, identify the time when the officer first encountered the minor, and provide the minor's stated age in the description portion of the citation. The failure to assess whether one of the exceptions enumerated in subsection (b) applies or to complete the narrative portion is grounds for dismissal of the citation.
- (d) Violation. Each violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute a separate offense and shall be an infraction unless the minor requests that a petition be filed under Section 601 and 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- (e) Penalties for Violation. Any person convicted of willfully violating this ordinance is guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine not exceeding $250.00 and/or perform community service for a total time not to exceed 20 hours over a period not to exceed 30 days, during times other than his or her hours of school attendance or employment.
- (d) Penalties for Violation. A violation of this section is an infraction. Notwithstanding any other section, a violation of this section shall not be punishable by a fine. Any citation issued under this section shall specify the steps a minor may take to obtain a dismissal of the citation.
- (e) Data Collection. The Los Angeles Police Department shall publish bi-annual statistics regarding the number of minors cited under this section, along with the location and time of the citation and the age, ethnicity, race and gender of the minors cited.

A Day of Action at Cleveland High School: LAPD in LAUSD Schools

Written by Diana Martinez, SFV Sun Friday, 29 January 2010

Students from Cleveland High School in Reseda participated in a "Day of Action" rally Tuesday in conjunction with the release of the report, "Police in LAUSD Schools: The Need for Accountability and Alternatives" (Read the Report). Similar rallies were held on other LAUSD campuses including Manuel Arts and Westchester High Schools.

The report published by the Strategy Center's Community Rights Campaign attributes the increasing presence of police in and around LAUSD school campuses as contributing to student's dropping out and being "pushed out" of school.

Wearing tee shirts that read Hey LAUSD, I'm Pre-Med, Pre-Job NOT Pre-Prison, Cleveland High Students at the Day of Action rally said they agree with the report's findings. "We have to take a stand, we can't sit back and watch bad things happen to our peers," said Carla Duarte, a junior at Cleveland, "We have to make people aware and let them know that these things are happening."

They said they believe that school police currently assigned to their school, practice racial profiling and discourage students from coming to school by regularly issuing truancy tickets to students who may be only a few minutes late trying to get to class.

"The tickets cost $250, so if a student is running late, they'll stay home rather than face getting a ticket [that they can't afford to pay]," said Eric Fuentes Casas, a senior. "They even handcuff students when they are writing the truancy tickets which makes students nervous and scared about coming to school."

Truancy laws restrict the rights of juveniles to be outdoors or in public places during certain hours of the day. Such laws aim to increase school attendance, enhance a student's opportunity to receive a quality education, become a more productive member of society, and avoid becoming involved in delinquent behaviors. The Los Angeles Municipal Code (LAMC) 45.04 states:

It is unlawful for any minor under the age of 18, who is subject to compulsory education or to compulsory continuation education, alone or in concert with others, be present in or upon the public streets, highways, roads, alleys, parks, playgrounds, or other public grounds, public places, public buildings, places of amusement and eating places, vacant lots or any place open to the public during the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. of the same day on days when said minor's school is in session. The provisions of this section shall not apply when:

- a. The minor is accompanied by his or her parent, guardian or other adult person having the care and custody of the minor;
- b. The minor is on an emergency errand directed by his or her parent or guardian or other adult person having the care and custody of the minor;
- c. The minor is going or coming directly from or to their place of gainful employment;
- d. The minor is going or coming to or from a medical appointment;
- e. The minor has permission to leave campus for lunch and has in his or her possession a valid, school-issued, off-campus permit;
- f. The minor is attending or going to or returning directly home from a public meeting, or place of public entertainment, such as a movie, play, sporting event or school activity; or
- g. The presence of such minor in said place or places is connected with or required with respect to a business, trade, profession or occupation in which the minor is lawfully engaged.

h. when the minor is involved in an emergency such as a fire, natural disaster, automobile accident, a situation requiring immediate action to prevent serious bodily injury or loss of life, or any unforeseen combination of circumstances or the resulting state which calls for immediate action; or

- i. when the minor is in a motor vehicle involved in interstate travel; or
- j. when the minor is on a sidewalk abutting the minor's residence.

Violations are punishable by a fine not exceeding $250.00 and/or community service.

SUBJECT: TRUANCY LETTER AUTOMATION PROCEDURES

In August 2010, the LAUSD began automating the Mandated Initial Truancy Letters through ISIS (Integrated Student Information System). Initially central staff generated and mailed Preliminary Truancy Reports to all schools. Beginning January 2011 all school sites shall generate their own LAUSDMAX Truancy Reports. In order to ensure accuracy of truancy letters mailed, school staff will be allotted ten school days to clear absences prior to the actual production of the letters, thus preventing unnecessary generation of truancy letters. All tardies over 30 minutes, full and partial day absences should be cleared and coded correctly in ISIS.

Students with three or more of the following reason codes will receive a truancy letter:

Description	Reason Code	Special Considerations
Truant	3
Unexcused	2
Tardy unexcused or Truant	2, 3	30 minutes or more
No note, Uncleared, Null	0, UC,	Greater than 10 school days old

If a student has one or more of the following reason codes in a school day, that school day is counted as one day towards the classification of truancy. Please note that LAUSDMAX does not automatically convert no note, uncleared or Null absence reason codes to truancies. However, when due diligence is provided and documented for the clearing of absences, the school can convert uncleared absences to truancy (reason code 3) after ten school days. This policy is also included in the Parent-Student Handbook.

At the close of each month, a Preliminary Truancy Report shall be generated by all school sites for review and correction as follows:

Dates Evaluated for Truancy	Generate Preliminary Truancy Report	Generate Final Report Generated	Mailing of Initial Truancy Letters

The Preliminary Truancy Report will identify all students classified as "truants." Truancies that occur prior to a change of school or program will be counted toward the classification of truancy. Schools are allotted 10 school days to clear any absences included in the report. Refer Section V Absences and Notifications of the Attendance Policy and Procedures Manual, dated February 2010 for comprehensive list of procedures on clearing absences. A final report should be generated to confirm all corrections have been made on the eleventh day. This final report will be used to generate the truancy letters which will be mailed centrally. Please note that failure to clear absences will result in an influx in the number of parents contacting your school regarding the incorrect mailing of truancy letters.

Notification that the Initial Truancy Letter was sent is noted under Student Information Special Concerns Section in LAUSDMAX. Hard copies of mailed Initial Truancy Letters will be mailed to schools on a monthly basis. There is no need to send copies of the Initial Truancy Letter to Central as they have already been submitted for cost reimbursement. For audit purposes, school staff must maintain a hard copy of the truancy notifications for three years in a secured location.

If you have questions regarding the automation of truancy letters, please contact Debra Duardo, Executive Director of Pupil Services at (213) 241-3844 or Cynthia Lim, Executive Director, Office of Data and Accountability, at (213) 241-2460.

POLICY:

- I. Philosophy: The Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) believes that student attendance and student achievement are closely intertwined. Students who develop patterns of good attendance are much more likely to be successful both academically and socially than students who develop patterns of poor attendance. If a child's chronic absenteeism is not addressed in its early stages, the odds are greatly increased that he or she will 1) need costly instructional remediation and/or special services, and/or 2) develop a negative self-concept, experience academic failure, drop out of school, engage in antisocial behavior, and fail to contribute positively to the local community as an adult.
- Π. The Law: Every child between the ages of 6 and 18 has the right and the obligation to attend school. The LAUSD is committed to the development of programs and practices that foster and encourage both the enrollment and the regular, daily attendance of all students who are subject to the State's compulsory school attendance laws. The parents or guardians of each student have the responsibility to enroll their child(ren) in school and to send them to school on a daily basis on time.
- Ш. Statement of Policy: Acknowledging that there is a direct correlation between student achievement and student attendance, the LAUSD affirms its commitment to improving student attendance. This is a top priority.

GUIDELINES:

Every school within the LAUSD must develop programs and practices consistent with the LAUSD's mission to improve student attendance. School site attendance policies should be developed within the context of the following guidelines:

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT Policy Bulletin

- I. School Climate: Each school shall work collaboratively with the entire school community to create and maintain a school culture and climate where students feel welcome and safe. A positive school environment, conducive to regular daily attendance and learning will result in increased attendance and improved academic achievement.
- II. Attendance Plan: Each school shall develop a comprehensive, written, attendance-improvement plan. This plan shall be developed with the participation of school staff, parents, and other community members and shall be available for review by both Local and Central District personnel. The plan shall also clearly indicate the roles and responsibilities of students, parents, and staff in recording, monitoring, and improving and/or maintaining student attendance. For guidelines on how to develop a school-site attendance plan, please see Attachment A, Blueprint for Attendance Improvement.
- III. Positive Incentives: As part of the above-referenced Attendance Plan, each school shall develop a school-wide attendance-incentive program that includes relevant educational activities for motivating students to improve and/or maintain their good attendance. The incentive program shall clearly define accountabilities, procedures, responsibilities, interventions, and rewards.
- IV. Parent Notification: Each school shall inform parents/guardians, in their own language (wherever possible), of the State's compulsory school attendance laws, of the school's attendance policies, of when their child(ren) has been absent or tardy from school, and of the resources available to assist them in addressing or resolving attendance problems. Parent notification of a child who is truant shall be made in writing.
- V. Attendance Intervention: Each school shall make every effort to follow the District's Mandated Attendance Intervention Protocol, as illustrated in Attachments B and C. School principals must ensure that their staff is provided with in-service training on the parameters of the protocol and on a systematic plan to implement the protocol.
- VI. Accountability: In furtherance of the District's campaign to improve student attendance, staff members from the Central and Local District Offices, as well as from each school, shall be accountable for monitoring and improving student attendance. Each school principal is ultimately responsible for improving his or her school's attendance rates.

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT Policy Bulletin

- VII. Compulsory Education: All Students between the ages of 6 and 18 must, unless legally exempt, attend school daily (Education Code Section [E.C.] 48200). (See Attendance Procedures for Elementary and Secondary Schools, Bulletin 1292 for details regarding exempt students.)
- VIII. Truance: A student who is absent three full days without a valid excuse, or on three occasions is tardy or absent for more than thirty minutes, or any combination thereof, is a truant (E.C. 48260). Truancy can lead to severe consequences, including fines and criminal prosecution of parents.
- IX. Compulsory Education Enforcement: Each school is responsible for developing all applicable intervention actions deemed necessary to enforce compulsory education and to address truancy. Habitual truants may be referred to a School's Attendance Review Team (SART) or a School Attendance Review Board (SARB). SARB may refer a student to the City or District Attorney for prosecution, as deemed appropriate. Parents/guardians who refuse to send their child(ren) to school or do not provide reasons for their child(dren)'s absences may also be referred to SART or SARB for subsequent referral for legal action.
- X. Eighteen-Year-Old Students: School personnel shall not arbitrarily check out of school any student merely because he or she has reached 18 years of age.
 - A. Schools shall make every reasonable effort to provide high school students with four full years of study.
 - B. Students who receive special education services, and who have not completed their prescribed courses of study, are eligible to maintain their enrollment until they are 22 years old; they may remain in school until the end of the semester in which they attain the age of 22.
 - C. Emancipated minors are considered as adults for the purpose of enrolling in school and may make educational decisions without the approval/agreement of their parent(s). However, until they reach the age of 18, they are still subject to the compulsory education laws.
- XI. Absenteeism and Make-Up Work: A student's absence must be recorded as "excused" or "unexcused." A student returning to school from an "excused" absence shall be allowed to complete all assignments and tests missed during the absence that can be reasonably provided and, upon satisfactory completion within a reasonable period of time, shall be given full credit therefore. The teacher of any class from which a pupil is absent shall determine the tests and assignments reasonably equivalent to, but not necessarily identical to, the tests and assignments that the pupil missed during the absence (E.C. 48205[b]).

XII. Unexcused Absences or Tardiness: The LAUSD authorizes secondary schools, in collaboration with Local and Central District staffs, to develop and implement a system of progressive consequences for students who are excessively absent or tardy without valid excuses. This system of consequences shall be part of the overall school's student attendance improvement plan and shall include provisions for student due process, such as appeal procedures, and safeguards and/or programs to prevent increases in school dropout rates and/or decreases in school enrollment or graduation rates (e.g., see below section XIV on Weekend Attendance-Recovery Program). While attendance in class may be used as a factor in determining a student's overall performance, it may not be used as part of a rigid or automatic formula for issuing a failing grade or denying credits.

Schools that choose to implement such a system of progressive consequences shall 1) properly communicate it to all students and their parents, 2) post it for public viewing, and 3) make it available for review by both Local and Central District personnel.

- XIII. Extended Absences: All extended student absences (beyond five days) must be investigated. At each school, the principal shall designate a school administrator to be responsible for the verification of the reasons for extended absences. The administrator does not have to personally verify, but he or she must make the determination that the verification was made by an appropriate school staff, such as a PSA counselor. Schools shall not check out any student who has been absent for more that five (5) days until and unless the following conditions are met:
 - A. The parent/guardian of the student informs the appropriate school personnel that the student has moved out of the District's boundaries, or no longer resides in the school's attendance area, and states where the student is or will be attending, or
 - B. The designated administrator verifies that the student has enrolled in an appropriate instructional program that meets the requirements of the State's compulsory school attendance laws, or
 - C. A request for records is received from another school or school district.
 - D. Telephone calls to all numbers on the Registration and Emergency Cards fail to ascertain the current whereabouts of the student, and

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT Policy Bulletin

E. A home visit by a PSA counselor or other appropriate certificated school personnel determines that the student no longer resides at the given address.

No school shall adopt an "automatic drop" policy as a remedy to a prolonged student absence. Rather, schools that face such a dilemma should work closely with Pupil Services and Attendance personnel and other support service providers to utilize all available means to investigate the whereabouts, locate the family, and if necessary, pursue legal procedures, such as the SART/SARB or City/District Attorney programs. In addition, every effort shall be made to program a student returning from an extended absence into his or her previous classes, as appropriate.

- XIV. Weekend Attendance Recovery Program (Saturday "Make-Up" School): It is the intent of the LAUSD to pursue the development of weekend school alternative programs. Such programs may authorize schools to implement weekend classes as a means of assisting students who have been absent for unexcused reasons during the week, have been deemed truant or whose parents, voluntarily, want them to make up missed classes. This program, if developed and implemented, shall be in accordance with applicable laws, as well as any applicable LAUSD policies or guidelines. (E.C. 37223 and 48260)
- XV. Alternatives to Off-Campus Suspension: The LAUSD encourages secondary schools to implement a program of alternatives to off-campus suspensions. Examples include, but are not limited to, strategies such as peer mediation, independent study, after-school programs, weekend social-skills classes, and parental involvement activities.
- XVI. Intervention for At-Risk Students/Potential Dropouts: Each school shall develop a system to identify and assist high-risk students and potential dropouts. This system shall include, but not be limited to, assigning a case manager (such as a PSA counselor) to assist students who exhibit patterns of poor attendance.
- XVII. Independent Study: Schools shall make every reasonable effort to coordinate independent study activities for students who are or will be absent from school for significant periods of time due to life circumstances, including long-term illnesses, extended travel, family difficulties, or other situations for which the parent has obtain prior written approval.

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT Policy Bulletin

XVIII. Period-By-Period Attendance Accounting: On July 13, 2004, the Board authorized the Superintendent to implement a system of period-by-period attendance reporting at secondary schools. The period-by-period reporting is intended to improve accountability for each individual student's attendance, as well as to ensure that the District's actual attendance numbers are more accurate. Period-by-period attendance reporting will be required at all secondary schools when they begin using the Integrated Student Information System (ISIS) for recording attendance.

Truancy Abatement Partnerships: Research indicates that student attendance significantly increases when school districts form strong partnerships with community programs that prevent truancy.

- District/City Attorney Truancy Prevention Programs, for example, the Abolish Chronic Truancy (ACT) or the Safe Schools Division of the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office.
- Partnership with Los Angeles Police Department and LAUSD School Police to cite students who are not in school during school hours for loitering. Schools should develop the support services needed for students cited upon their return to school.

Interventions for At-Risk Students/Potential Dropouts: Every school shall develop a system to identify and assist high-risk students and potential dropouts.

Implementation of the Coordination of Services Team (COST) and the Student Success Team (SST) will serve to provide resources, assess family needs and provide interventions necessary to stabilize the student and family and return the student to regular daily attendance. Refer to BUL-3720.0, Dropout Prevention, Intervention, and Recovery Strategies, dated May 23, 2007.

Some suggestions may include, but not limited to, the following:

- A review of the student's records, including attendance, grades, test scores, and discipline records, to determine the most appropriate services.
- A compilation of available in-school and community resources that address various specific needs of students.
- Assigning a case manager (such as a PSA Counselor, academic counselor) to coordinate, monitor, and document services offered and services utilized for students who exhibit patterns of poor attendance, social/emotional problems, or poor school adjustment.
- Forming a Coordination of Services Team (COST) that documents and coordinates multidisciplinary student services that may include, but is not limited to, SST, IEP, SART, or SARB.

Independent Study: Every school shall develop an In-School Independent Study Program to address two important needs (1) To provide an opportunity for students who are absent from school due to life circumstances such as long-term illness, delivery of a child, family emergency or other situation. The parent may obtain written permission for the student to make up their academic assignments. (2) In these tenuous times of depleting budgets, the District will recoup ADA that would have been lost if not for the Independent Study Program. Refer to BUL- M-128, Guidelines for Independent Study Program, dated May 31, 2001.

The following Education Codes should be considered and reviewed:

- Independent Study is a voluntary instructional strategy. No student shall be required to participate in Independent study. (EC 51747 (c) (7))
- An individual with exceptional needs may not be enrolled in Independent Study unless his or her Individualized Education Program (IEP) specifically provides for such enrollment. (EC 56026 & 51745 (c))
- The independent study curriculum shall be substantially equivalent in quality and quantity to classroom instruction. (EC 11701.5)

- (B) That the pupil or the parents or guardians of the pupil, or both, have failed to respond to directives of the school attendance review board or probation officer or to services provided.
- (2) The name and address of the parent or guardian of each pupil described in paragraph (1).
- (b) Upon receipt of notification provided pursuant to subdivision (a), the district attorney or the probation officer may notify the parents or guardians of each pupil concerning whom notification has been received, by first-class mail or other reasonable means, that

- (c) In any county which has not established a county school attendance review board, the district attorney or the probation officer of the county in which the school district is located may notify the parents or guardians of every truant, by first-class mail or other reasonable means, that they may be subject to prosecution pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 48290) of Chapter 2 of Part 27 for failure to compel the attendance of the pupil at school.
- (d) If the district attorney or the probation officer, or both, are notified by a school district that a child continues to be classified as a truant after the parents or guardians have been notified pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 48260.5, the district attorney or the probation officer in any county which has not established a county school attendance review board may request the parents or guardians and the child to attend a meeting in the district attorney's office or at the probation department pursuant to Section 601.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to discuss the possible legal consequences of the child's truancy. Notice of the meeting shall be given pursuant to Section 601.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- 48261. Any pupil who has once been reported as a truant and who is again absent from school without valid excuse one or more days, or tardy on one or more days, shall again be reported as a truant to the attendance supervisor or the superintendent of the district.
- 48262. Any pupil is deemed an habitual truant who has been reported as a truant three or more times per school year, provided that no pupil shall be deemed an habitual truant unless an appropriate district officer or employee has made a conscientious effort to hold at least one conference with a parent or guardian of the pupil and the pupil himself, after the filing of either of the reports required by Section 48260 or Section 48261. For purposes of this section, a conscientious effort means attempting to communicate with the parents of the pupil at least once using the most cost-effective method possible, which may include electronic mail or a telephone call.
- 48263. If any minor pupil in any district of a county is an habitual truant, or is irregular in attendance at school, as defined in this article, or is habitually insubordinate or disorderly during attendance at school, the pupil may be referred to a school attendance review board or to the probation department for services if the probation department has elected to receive these referrals. The supervisor of attendance, or any other persons the governing board of the school district or county may designate, making the referral shall notify the minor and parents or guardians of the minor, in writing, of the name and address of the board or probation department to which the matter has been referred and of the reason for the referral. The notice shall indicate that the pupil and parents or guardians of the pupil will be required, along with the referring person, to meet with the school attendance review board or probation officer to consider a proper disposition of the referral.
- If the school attendance review board or probation officer determines that available community services can resolve the problem of the truant or insubordinate pupil, then the board or probation officer shall direct the pupil or the pupil's parents or guardians, or both, to make use of those community services. The school attendance review board or probation officer may require, at any time the juvenile court, within seven days of the entry of the dispositional order, to the superintendent of the school district of attendance, which information shall be expeditiously transmitted to the principal or to one person designated by the principal of the school that the minor is attending. The principal or the principal's designee shall not disclose this information to any other person except as otherwise required by law.

48268. The court, in addition to any judgment it may make regarding the pupil, may render judgment that the parent, guardian, or person having the control or charge of the pupil shall deliver him at the beginning of each schoolday, for the remainder of the school term, at the school from which he is a truant, or in which he has been insubordinate or disorderly during attendance, or to a school designated by school authorities.

48269. If the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of the child, within three days after the rendition of the judgment executes a bond to the governing board of the school district in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200), conditioned that the child will, during the remainder of the current school year, regularly attend some public or private school in the city, or city and county, or school district, and not be insubordinate or disorderly during attendance, then the court may make an order suspending the execution of the judgment so long as the condition of the bond is complied with. The bond shall be filed with the secretary of the board of education, or clerk of the board of trustees. All money paid or collected on the bond shall be paid into the county treasury as provided in Section 41001.

48273. The governing board of each school district shall adopt rules and regulations to require the appropriate officers and employees of the district to gather and transmit to the county superintendent of schools the number and types of referrals to school attendance review boards and of requests for petitions to the juvenile court pursuant to Section 48263.

Is a Top School Forcing Out Low-Performing Students?

By Melba Newsome/Charlotte

Things were not going well for Jasmine Boulware during her first year at prestigious Myers Park High School in Charlotte, N.C. The 16-year-old freshman had racked up several disciplinary suspensions, mainly for disruptive behavior. So when the assistant principal called her into his office in February, 2005, she anticipated another reprimand. Instead, she was told that her days at Myers Park were over. "He said I wasn't learning anything, wasn't going to learn anything and only wanted to hang out with my friends," Jasmine recalls. "He told me there was no place for students like me at Myers Park." Jasmine's mother, Kelly Kennedy, says she reluctantly allowed her daughter to withdraw, but only after being told that Jasmine could return to Myers Park in the fall.

But when Jasmine tried to re-enroll the following September, she was turned away, according to her mother. Kennedy pleaded her daughter's case to then-principal Bill Anderson but says he was unmoved, citing the teenager's past disciplinary problems and excessive absenteeism. It was only when Kennedy went directly to the Charlotte Mecklenburg district office that she learned the school had no legal basis to exclude Jasmine. Suspecting a pattern of forcing out minority students, Kennedy told school district officials that she intended to refer the matter to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the Congressional Black Caucus. Jasmine was back in school within the week.

Jasmine is not the only struggling student who claims to have been pushed out or encouraged to leave Myers Park High. Another Myers Park mother, Susan Arnette, claims when she and her daughter Brianna Govan were living in a homeless shelter, Brianna was frequently late or absent. Anderson forced her to leave school, saying she was "not Myers Park material." Documents obtained by TIME and interviews with former students, parents and school employees strongly suggest that Myers Park had an unofficial policy of ridding itself of underperforming students during Anderson's tenure from 2002 to 2005 and perhaps beyond, by using tactics including listing dropouts as out-of-state transfers. The school district is currently investigating the matter. Anderson did not respond to requests for an interview, but denied any wrongdoing in an e-mail: "My philosophy was to make all decisions in the best interests of the students we served." Anderson now consults to the school district and heads a dropout prevention program — an ironic choice, if the allegations prove to be correct.

With expansive tree-lined streets and stately million-dollar homes, Myers Park is one of Charlotte's most desirable addresses. Its superb high school, which offers the International Baccalaureate program and a rich menu of Advanced Placement classes, is a big part of its appeal. The school serves 3,000 students, 66% of them white, 22% black and 4% hispanic. North Carolina designated it a School of Distinction; Lloyd Wimberley, who headed the school from 1996 to 2002, was named North Carolina Principal of the Year in 2002; and the school has consistently ranked in the top 20 on Newsweek magazine's list of best high schools in the country.

However, like many other high-flying schools with a substantial minority and low-income population, Myers Park has been under increasing pressure to close the achievement gap between students that are white and black, rich and poor. In 2006, only 51% of its black students performed at levels III/IV — proficient and above — on state exams, compared with 90% of white. Under the 2001 No Child Left Behind Act, schools that fail to close such a gap are declared "failing schools" — no matter how well the majority are doing — and can face a loss of federal Title 1 funding for low-income students.

In the current era of school accountability, there are other pressures to keep scores uniformly high. State test scores are routinely published in news accounts and have a considerable influence on local property values. In addition, many states and cities offer financial incentives for teachers and principals at schools that score high. "Principals are desperate to provide good news and reassure their communities that they are in good shape," says former principal Wimberley.

In this atmosphere, there's a big incentive for schools to artificially inflate their achievement data. Earlier this year, an investigation found that scores on state tests at the elite Charles E. Brimm Medical Arts High School in Camden, N.J., had been manipulated. Investigators concluded that there was "enormous pressure" from the superintendent on down "to generate high test scores."

North Carolina and Charlotte offer monetary incentives of up to $1500 to teachers and even larger bonuses for principals whose schools meet or exceed certain performance criteria. Among those criteria are high school graduation rates, a factor that should, in theory, encourage schools to keep kids in school, not push underachievers out. But school documents obtained by TIME suggest that Myers Park found a way around this: reporting that students who had dropped out had instead transferred out of the district.

Jasmine Boulware, for instance, was listed as an out-of-state transfer — even though her two siblings still attended the high school. At least two dozen students officially listed as transfers were found by TIME to still be living in the district. Among them was Andrew Dreher, a white student who voluntarily dropped out in 10th grade, never left Charlotte and is currently working at a fast food restaurant.

The school district is investigating whether the inaccurate records reflect a pattern of deception or sloppy paperwork. "We have uncovered some legitimate questions as to how some information has been handled," says Nora Carr, chief communications officer for the district.

A former Myers Park counselor, who asked not to be identified, says that during Anderson's three-year tenure at the school, it was an open secret that underperforming and/or problem students were pressured to leave or told they could not return after disciplinary suspensions. "We all saw the push-out going on," she recalls. "It was almost a joke. In front of the faculty of 150, Anderson would say 'get your attendances in. If the students have excessive absences, we can get rid of them and send them to the school of far, far away." The school of far, far away, she explains, was a euphemism for getting rid of problem students.

"This is an easy way to deal with a difficult problem," says Wimberley, who became a district assistant superintendent after leaving Myers Park. "They want to get certain kids out because if they're struggling or not attending class, they're going to score low on the tests and blow their whole average." In the Charlotte Mecklenburg School District, he notes, "the principal's evaluation is heavily weighted to student performance and achievement."

Anderson denies both the charge and the alleged motivation: "To suggest that my staff and I conspired to push students out of school to ensure higher test scores is a theory that is without merit," he said in an email. "As a school community Myers Park works diligently to help all students succeed."

That may be, but Lloyd Wimberley sees a sad irony in the way current national pressures to close achievement gaps can actually work against the neediest students. "No Child Left Behind has resulted in increased resentment toward at-risk and exceptional-needs kids," he says. "It's sad that legislation intended to improve the outcome for these kids is backfiring."

Jasmine Boulware, now 18, appears to be one of those kids. Six weeks after returning to Myers Park in September 2005, she had fallen hopelessly behind. Frustrated and unable to get the kind of help she needed, she voluntarily dropped out and became pregnant shortly thereafter. "I want to get my GED or something, but I don't know how to go about it," she says. In the meantime, Jasmine spends her days in her mom's apartment, watching television, chatting on the phone with friends and caring for her infant daughter, Kaiyaree.
