Dear Councilmembers Jose Huizar, Chair, Marqueece Harris-Dawson, Gilbert Cedillo, Mitchell Englander, and Felipe Fuentes,

I am writing to urge you to adopt the new city-wide sign ordinance approved last Fall by the City Planning Commission. Living in the Faircrest Heights community, I have been involved in billboard blight issues for over ten years. As a mental health expert, I understand the detrimental impact that billboard blight has on the psyches of the citizens of our city. I urge you to end the delay and get the ordinance on the books.

Thank you,

Hello,

Good morning. How are you? Please have PLUM support the city-wide sign ordinance approved by the City Planning Commission last fall. Los Angeles is a beautiful city. Please protect it. The residents and voters of Los Angeles want to see their elected representatives protect them from out of control advertising. We support you and have faith in you.

Support the city-wide ordinance approved by the City Planning Commission last fall.

Matt

Dear Ms Dickinson,

Bottom line - our city is already visually noisy and polluted with the sight of so many legal and illegal billboards. Please end the delay and adopt the city-wide sign ordinance that is pending.

Sincerely,
Shlomit Levy Bard

Re: Council file #11-1705 Citywide Sign Ordinance Revision.

PLEASE get this ordinance on the books. No more delays!

Talk of amnesty for law-breaking advertisers is a slap in the face to all of us Angelenos, who are daily victimized by this visual pollution.

Further delays in the passage of this ordinance are more slaps in the face. They make us question whether you are serving the interests of the people or of the sign industry.

Sincerely,
Eric Wrobbel
