RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, we take great pleasure in joining the Armenian American community of Los Angeles in recognizing MARO KECHICHIAN for her distinguished record of community service; and

WHEREAS, born in Anjar, Lebanon as the third of Vahan and Siranoush Kechichian's seven children, MARO KECHICHIAN earned a Bachelor's Degree in Armenian Literature from St. Joseph University before serving as the director of the Aksor Kassanjian Armenian School's kindergarten; and

WHEREAS, from a very early age, MARO KECHICHIAN became involved with her local scouting organizations, initially serving as a girl scout in the Armenian Relief Cross of Lebanon's Anjar Chapter before transferring to Homenetmen's Bourj Hamoud chapter, where she eventually earned the title of Regional Scouting Leader; and

WHEREAS, in 1984, MARO KECHICHIAN relocated to the United States and began working as a typesetter and reporter for Asbarez Daily Newspaper, later becoming a part of the influential publication's editorial staff; and

WHEREAS, highly keen on continuing her work in the community, MARO KECHICHIAN became an active member of the Homenetmen Los Angeles Chapter, subsequently serving as a Regional Scouting Leader and active participant of the Pan Homenetmen Jamborees in Armenia; and

WHEREAS, in 1990, MARO KECHICHIAN was selected by the Homenetmen Central Executive to help lead an effort to establish Homenetmen chapters in Armenia, helping reverse the toll that Soviet influence had taken on the country; and

WHEREAS, throughout the years, MARO KECHICHIAN has taken up numerous leadership roles within Homenetmen, serving for several terms as a member of the Regional Executive Board; and

WHEREAS, for her unwavering dedication, MARO KECHICHIAN has been recognized with numerous honors and accolades, including a third Wood Badge from behalf of the Boy Scouts of America; the prestigious "Ararat Rank" from Homenetmen; and, in 2011, the first Vartan Pakhshian Medal from the Armenian National Scout Movement for her immeasurable contributions to the citizens of Armenia; and

WHEREAS, in recognition to her many years of service to the organization, the Homenetmen Regional Executive has named MARO KECHICHIAN the 2012 Exemplary Homenetmen Member;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that by the adoption of this resolution, the City of Los Angeles hereby honors MARO KECHICHIAN for her dedicated service to

BOB MARLEY DAY

August 7, 2012

WHEREAS, after six years and three different directors, Marley, a documentary about the life of reggae legend Bob Marley will be released on April 20, 2012; and

WHEREAS, Marley was directed by the gifted Kevin Macdonald (The Last King of Scotland), who shows that the film is documentary prose, not poetry — but by treating Marley as a man of depth and nuance, of inner light and shadow; and

WHEREAS, the documentary depicts, Bob Marley's rise to the world stage, percolating up from the inside-out rhythms of reggae and was one of the most ebullient star sagas of the '70s; and

WHEREAS, Marley's death in 1981, from a cancer that went untreated far too long, ends the film on a haunted note of what might have been; and

WHEREAS, the film features rare concert footage and interviews with Marley's family and friends, such as his son Ziggy and wife Rita Marley and Jimmy Cliff. Performances of hits such as "One Love," "I Shot the Sheriff," "No Woman, No Cry" and "Jammin'" are also shown as Marley and the Wailers hit the world stage; and

WHEREAS, Marley saw its world premiere at the Berlin International Film Festival and opens in Canada and several European markets in May, followed by France in June 2012; and

WHEREAS on April 17th the Dome on Sunset will be holding the premiere of Marley where four of Bob's children Ziggy, Karen, Robbie and Rohan will attend. The film will have its theatrical release with Magnolia Films on April 20th, 2012; and

WHEREAS, Magnolia Pictures has set the DVD release date of August 7, 2012 for the documentary "Marley" – with the bonus material for the DVD package. The two hour, 24-minute film will be accompanied with a disc that contains concert footage of four songs previously unseen, a 20-minute interview with Bunny Wailer, an interview with Stephen Marley that did not make it into the film and 20 minutes of people all around the world speaking about Marley and his music:
