Subject: Against the Hollywood Development Plan

To: Sharon.Gin@lacity.org

Hi, Sharon.

The more I learn about the Hollywood Development Plan, the more I see that it aims to solve problems that don't exist with "solutions" that have failed in other cities. Its only purpose seems to enrich developers and create construction jobs.

Having lived in New York for a few years, I know what this kind of plan can accomplish: it's not pretty.

Please scrap this plan for something more sustainable, smaller-scale, and community-oriented.

Regards,

Miller Duvall
