This reprogramming from the Slauson Corridor Revitalization in the amount of $725,649 was not circulated for Public Comment as required by Federal regulations for Citizen Participation.

The original funding was to

GOAL: Stabilize and revitalize diverse neighborhoods

NEED: Build communities of opportunity

The Con Plan also stated:

It should be noted that for the 2013-2014 Action Plan, high priority was given to neighborhood improvement projects along transit corridors. These projects include but not limited to: Vision Theater (located within the Crenshaw/LAX Corridor), Slauson Corridor Revitalization Project (Crenshaw/LAX Corridor), Watts Towers/Cultural Crescent Parking Lot (located within the Blue Line Corridor), CCNP – Bixel Street Renovation (located within the Purple Line Corridor), and the Boyle Heights Employment Training Center (located within the Gold Line Corridor).

The National Objective for this reprogramming is not stated.

In order for the public to comment, please postpone transfer of the funds and publish the Substantial Amendment. Your decision if final and any comment period after your decision is mute.

Los Angeles Neighborhood Initiative (LANI) as a non-profit corporation does not hold jurisdiction for sidewalk right-of-ways including any transfer of utilities or leased infrastructure under such sidewalks.
