CURRICULUM VITAE

MARC T. LITTLE

Marc T. Little is a native of New Haven, Connecticut. He currently resides in Los Angeles California from where he oversees numerous business concerns. He is the president of the Law Offices of Marc T. Little, a law firm that specializes in music and sports-related transactions. The boutique firm was founded in 1994 and also handles general business litigation.

Since the Fall of 2002, Mr. Little has also been the Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel for the Faithful Central Bible Church in Inglewood, California (a 13,000 member church) and the operations of its holdings, subsidiaries and affiliated companies which include, but are not limited to, Forum Enterprises, Inc., the owner of the Los Angeles Forum (a 17,505 seat arena and former home of the Los Angeles Lakers). As Chief Operating Officer of such a multi-faceted organization, Mr. Little has managed a team effort to hire SMG, the world's most reputable venue manager, to manage the Los Angeles Forum, restructure the buildings' relationship with Anschutz Entertainment Group ("AEG") through litigation, procure ARAMARK as exclusive concessionaire for the Los Angeles Forum, restructure and procure new debt financing of $28 million organization-wide, procure capital investments in excess of $8 million, structure development relationships to develop the organization's 30 acre property and manage a host of law firms and consultants.

In driving the ministerial efforts of Faithful Central Bible Church into the future, Mr. Little and the executive team, under the leadership of Bishop Kenneth C. Ulmer, are spearheading a new campaign adopted by the church, which epitomizes the very essence of God's call to the body of believers. Our 'Champion Builders' motto: Building Champions for Divine Deployment carefully integrates a belief system that provides:

- Uncompromised bible-based teaching and preaching;
- Opportunities for growth via training, service and fellowship;
- A strong commitment to excellence in community service;
- A caring, family-oriented, life-changing environment which is accepting of all races, cultures and circumstances.

Mr. Little graduated from the University of Southern California where he received a Juris Doctorate degree in 1994 and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Broadcast Journalism in 1987.

Mr. Little is admitted to the State Bar of California and is licensed to practice before the state's courts, the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court of the State of California and is presently affiliated with the Los Angeles County Bar Association and the Black Law Students Alumni Association of the University of Southern California.

In 1988, Mr. Little founded and directed (until 1990) a non-profit effort called "Fight The Good Fight" for which he spoke to and encouraged inner city youth. Mr. Little met tragedy on the campus of the University of Southern California in 1987 when a gang member attempted to rob him at gun point. As a result of the encounter, Mr. Little was shot and suffered a full amputation of his right leg. This accident was the impetus for the program and led to local and national news coverage in such periodicals as the Los Angeles Times, Herald, Sacramento Bee, LA Focus and in "Keeping the Faith", by Tavis Smiley, a collection of inspirational stories published in 2002.

Mr. Little's expertise is utilized on various corporate boards. His corporate board affiliations are and have been:
