RE: TRANSMITTAL OF COUNCIL FILES NOS. 12-1824 and 12-1824-S1

On September 27, 2016, the Planning and Land Use Management (PLUM) Committee considered Motions (Ryu – Huizar – Bonin) and (LaBonge – Koretz), and reports from the Board of Police Commissioners and the City Attorney relative to modeling off the best practices of the ordinances in neighboring cities that regulate Party Houses. After consideration, the PLUM Committee moved to recommend that Council:

- Approve Motion (Ryu – Huizar – Bonin) on Council file No. 12-1824-S1.
- Request the City Attorney, in consultation with the Los Angeles Police Department, the Department of City Planning, and any other relevant departments, to draft an ordinance modeled after the ordinance used by the City of Newport Beach, incorporating the recommendations from Councilmember Ryu's letter dated September 27, 2016, and the concerns expressed by Councilmembers Cedillo and Harris-Dawson, regarding preventions of racial profiling.
- Continued Motion (LaBonge – Koretz) on Council file No. 12-1824 and requested that Public Safety consider this item concurrently.

These files are now transmitted to the Public Safety Committee.

PLUM Committee
