Mel Levine

Mel Levine joined the international law firm of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher as a partner in 1993. He retired from the firm in 2012 but continues to actively counsel clients as an Of Counsel to the firm. He has been repeatedly named one of the "Best Lawyers in America", most recently in 2019. He served as a member of the United States Congress from 1983 until 1993 and as a member of the California Assembly from 1977 to 1982. He is a member of the California bar and the District of Columbia bar.

Mr. Levine was named one of the "100 Most Influential" lawyers in California. He serves on the Advisory Board of the Center on Public Diplomacy at USC's Annenberg School, the Advisory Board of the Goldman School of Public Policy at the University of California (Berkeley) and a Director of the Pacific Council on International Policy. He has served as U.S. Chair of the U.S.-Israel-Palestinian "Anti-Incitement" committee established by the Wye Plantation peace agreement, as a Presidential appointee to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, as a U.S. government appointee to the U.S.-Israel Science and Technology Advisory Commission, as President of the American Friends of the (Yitzhak) Rabin Center in Israel, and as Board Chair of the Los Angeles Police Foundation.

Mr. Levine's Congressional committee assignments included the Committee on Foreign Affairs and its subcommittees on International Economic Policy and Trade, Europe and the Middle East, and Asia; the Committee on the Judiciary and its subcommittee on Intellectual Property; and the Committee on the Interior and Insular Affairs. Mr. Levine was especially engaged in U.S. foreign policy involving international trade and Middle East policy. He served as Chair of the House Task Force on Exports. He also served as co-chair of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee and chair of the Democratic Caucus Task Force on Latin America. Mr. Levine founded and co-chaired Rebuild America, an educational foundation to improve American competitiveness by increasing support for high-technology industries, improving education and rebuilding infrastructure. Between 1993 and 1997, Mr. Levine served, at the request of Vice President Gore, as co-President of Builders for Peace, the private sector effort to assist the Middle East peace process.

In the California Assembly, Levine was chair of the Energy subcommittee and author of California's Conservation Tax Credit legislation and California's Solar Rights Act.

Levine is player-manager of the Hollywood Stars adult baseball team (established 1971).

Mr. Levine received his law degree cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1969, a master's degree in public affairs from Princeton University in 1966, and a bachelor's degree cum laude from the University of California at Berkeley in 1964.

Mr. Levine is married to journalist Connie Bruck, a staff writer for The New Yorker magazine. They have four children, Adam Levine, Jake Levine, Cara Levine and Ari Schlossberg.

Dear Mr. Levine:

I am pleased to inform you that I hereby reappoint you to the Board of Water and Power Commissioners for the term ending June 30, 2024. In order to complete the process as quickly as possible, there are several steps that must be taken, many of which require visiting City Hall. If you require parking during these procedures, please call Claudia Luna in my Office at (213) 978-0621 to make arrangements for you.

To begin the reappointment process, please review, sign and return the enclosed Remuneration Form, Undated Separation Forms, Background Check Release and Information Sheet within one week of receiving this letter. These documents are necessary to ensuring the most efficient, open and accountable City government possible.

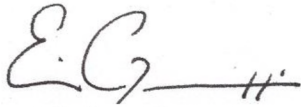

As part of the City Council confirmation process, you will need to meet with Mike Bonin, your Councilmember, and Councilmember Nury Martinez, the Chair of the Energy, Climate Change and Environmental Justice Committee, to answer any questions they may have. You will be hearing from a City Council committee clerk who will let you know when your reappointment will be considered by the Energy, Climate Change and Environmental Justice Committee. Some time thereafter, you will be notified by the committee clerk when your reappointment will be presented to the full City Council for confirmation. Once you are confirmed, you will be required to take the oath of office in the City Clerk's Office in Room 395 of City Hall. Claudia Luna will assist you during the confirmation process if you have questions.

Mr. Mel Levine
