Summary: Brief Summary: On Saturday, January 27th, 2018 the Van Nuys Neighborhood Council in a vote of 14-0 took the position of supporting Council File 13-1103-S1.

Additionally, the VNNC decided this council file should be updated and reintroduced, with the VNNC supporting moving the Museum of the San Fernando Valley into the Old Fire Station. The VNNC would like to see both the Valley Relics Museum and the Museum of the San Fernando Valley occupy the Old Fire Station and the Old Post Office at the Civic Center. Moreover, the VNNC would like the Civic Center to be turned into an indoor/outdoor museum with walking tours and statues lining the Erwin Street Mall.

Additional Information: The Van Nuys Neighborhood Council unanimously supports this motion, and the requested updates and reintroduction of the above motion. The VNNC looks forward to being involved in the process and working with the local governments, boards and commissions in Los Angeles.

This is the item as it appeared on the Agenda on January 27th, 2018.
