Re: Opposition of 13-1493 & 13-1493-S1

Dear Honorable Members:

Again, I renew my strong opposition of 13-1493 & 13-1493-S1 as written. The current definition of who and what is a business and vendor and where and when may a person express themselves is vague, ambiguous, and overboard, and compounds within its own terms and conditions. The ordinance requirement of the time, place, and one's management does not meet reasonable statutory construction standards. This ordinance will not sustain judicial scrutiny and public policy.

In addition, the proposed ordinance does not conform to Hopp v. City of Los Angeles (2010) 183 Cal.App.4th 713, 717.) as related to business.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Richard Hopp
