Lisa Waltz Morocco

A resident of Los Angeles for over half her life, Lisa was born and raised in Pennsylvania, graduated from Carnegie Mellon University, and lived in Pittsburgh and New York City.

As an actress she has appeared multiple times on Broadway, and has over 100 movies and television shows to her credit.

She found a home in the Rancho Park neighborhood of West Los Angeles that combined the walkability and cultural attractions of a 'big city' with the neighborly warmth of a small town where nearly everybody knows your name.

She co-founded the Overland Avenue Community after one of those neighbors –Richard Rowan – was struck and killed by a car crossing a street with a well-known traffic defect. The positive advocacy required to bring together all the involved agencies to correct and make safe her own block led her to pursue interests in neighborhood and City operations, planning and politics.

Holding a seat on the Westside Neighborhood Council and serving as Outreach Chair, Pico Beautification Chair and Treasurer, Lisa has been actively working to make the her neighborhood better, and her neighbors happier and safer while supporting the growth and success of local businesses through her "Pick Pico" shop/walk/eat maps and special event weekends; bringing together the resources of the City and private animal shelters with the Westside Pavilion for "Take Me Home Days," helping abandoned animals find forever homes; working to guide MTA grants toward beautifying and making Pico Boulevard a more vibrant and walkable destination for neighbors, near and far; helping the LAFD and LAPD with funding and equipment support through the WNC and neighborhood sources.

Lisa lends additional time and effort supporting the Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center where she serves on the UCLA Hospital Auxiliary Executive Board. Lisa also holds a board position on the Lange Foundation, a no kill animal shelter established in WLA and is a founding member of the Steel River Playhouse in Pottstown Pa. She is married to Dr. Mark Morocco, an emergency room physician at UCLA and technical medical advisor to numerous TV medical shows. Lisa is the proud mother of three Labradors, Ocho, Wallie and Doc.
