Dear Councilmember,

I have attended, I believe, all the SDU hearings this summer at City Hall, to oppose changes to the SDU ordinance. During that time, I have become familiar with the faces of the members of the audience who want the State rules instead.

And I ask you, apart from the hearings this summer, have you ever seen any of these people before? Apart from their self-serving visits to your office or City Hall, do these people participate in their neighborhoods? Do they attend Neighborhood Association, Neighborhood Council, CPAP, or other City Hall meetings of interest? Do they volunteer for neighborhood street clean-ups, emergency preparedness, PTA or other school functions?

It's been clear that financial gain is the bottom line for building these giant SDU's and not the thoughtful recognition that they live in a community, amongst neighbors who desire a livable environment.

Thank you for your consideration,
