

The Heritage Sycamore is one of the many trees currently residing in Crystal Springs Picnic Area that will disappear once Little League ballfields are built.

It's difficult to understand how massive this tree is until you notice the people lounging in the lower right hand corner...

