Dear City Council members and Planning Staff,

The first draft of amendments to the BMO/BHO made a good start. By almost 4 to 1, residents' responses supported the meaningful BMO reform outlined in Councilmember Koretz's original motion.

But the latest draft takes a wrong turn by a) preserving loopholes (exemptions and bonuses) that undermined the ordinance in the first place, and b) borrowing elements from re:Code LA that make the ordinance more difficult to understand and enforce.

While the process gets off track and falls behind, mansionization is spoiling neighborhoods all over LA. People who feel that developers are calling the shots at City Hall – and there are a lot of them – see this as further proof.

Councilmember Koretz's motion (and the first draft of proposed amendments) provided the blueprint for a simple, effective, and reasonable fix that would allow renovations, expansions and new construction, while protecting our treasured neighborhoods from being ravaged by unchecked, short-term real estate speculation and reckless development.

Please, support and champion the intent of Councilmember Koretz's original motion. Ensure that the ordinance does not retain (or create new) harmful loopholes – or get so filled with technobabble that it becomes impossible to understand or enforce.

Your voices carry great weight in this matter. You have a wonderful opportunity to show that you have been listening to stakeholders across the city, and that you care about LA's precious residential neighborhoods. It's time for Los Angeles to put stable, sustainable communities ahead of real estate speculation, political pressure, and the almighty dollar.

Sincerely,

Dear City Council members and Planning Staff,

How far up the developers' b-tts have you guys crawled? What is going on over there? Can't you get the message that your constituents DON'T WANT THESE UGLY PIECE OF SH-T WHITE BOXES THAT ARE BEING BUILT? Of course the people who buy them DON'T CARE ABOUT LOS ANGELES. ABOUT THE HISTORY. AND OF COURSE THE DEVELOPERS DON'T CARE ABOUT ANYTHING BUT MONEY. BUT IT'S YOUR JOB TO CARE!!! WAKE UP.
