Mariedel Leviste M.D.
Medical Director, Longevity and Aesthetic Institute of Los Angeles
Diplomate American Board of Internal Medicine & Dermatology

Dr. Leviste is an award winning physician and surgeon, artist, educator, author and speaker. She is considered an expert in evaluation and treatment of the Aging skin, with particular expertise in Ethnic skin and Women of Color. She is an award-winning research scientist and anti-aging expert. She trains physicians world-wide, having lectured in several countries.

She is the author of several scientific publications and a former editor-in-chief of PMSSC Medical Newsletter with medical columns in a few local newspapers.

She has served as a consultant to a number of boards, cosmetic and drug companies and is founder and president of Biodermik, Inc., a cosmoceutical and weight reduction line tailored for wellness and prevention of complications of diabetes (her other passion) and other internal diseases.

Dr. Leviste was tremendously passionate about the science and practice of medicine and surgery at a very young age. She came from a philanthropic and political family in the Philippines. As a teenager, she was active in community service, joined medical missions and later assisted in multiple surgical procedures including thyroidectomy under acupuncture anesthesia led by Chinese doctors from Beijing and OB-GYN procedures with the Karolinska Institute. After medical school, she later studied and trained at the State University of New York, State University of New Jersey, New York Medical College-St. Vincent in New York and in Paris, France for Cosmetic Surgery Fellowship. She later moved to Los Angeles, CA and started a medical practice. She was active in multiple medical and community associations including Fasgi,

Filipino-town and co-founded Kasama Foundation, a non-profit organization devoted to helping immigrants, disabled, and the unfortunate in their medical and legal needs. She volunteered to be the Dermatologist for homeless children including Children of the Night, Projecto Del Barrio, Pacific Boys and Girls Club. She later co-founded Medical Missions, Inc., sponsoring missions to the Philippines and Latin American countries. She helped set-up the family charity hospital and medical library in the Philippines and donated children's books and all her health, art and medical books "Aklat ni Mariedel". She helped pioneered the green revolution in the Philippines and later founded the Research Scientist International Organization devoted to the advancement of science, medicine and technology. She someday hopes to do exchange student fellowship between the family donated university in the Philippines and the California School system specializing in science and biotechnology.

Being an active member of Asia society, together with her husband, they organized and spearheaded successful trade missions in Southeast Asia and was able to successfully connect businesses in the U.S. and Asia.

She received multiple awards, twice as Woman of the Year, Ten Outstanding Asian Women of America, Investigative Medical Researcher, Medical Practitioner of the year, also honored as One of the Five Outstanding Health Care Professional given by Los Angeles City Council headed by then Councilman Eric Garcetti. Last August 13, she was selected as outstanding medical practitioner for community service by Filipino-town organization.

She also recently founded Telemedicine Inc. (specializing Dermatology) which later will expand to other services. Patients are now able to see physicians from the comfort of their own homes, offices - making access to medical care easier and more affordable. She is also active in Regenerative Medicine doing cutting-edge treatments using adult stem cells. She is also active in Genomics, Wireless technologies and Biotech innovations and Longevity research.

This year, she founded and is the president of National Health Care ACO (Accountable Care Organization), an organization that aligns and collaborate all services of physicians, hospitals, social workers and all healthcare providers to provide highest quality of medical care and minimize cost with emphasis on wellness and prevention, telehealth, patient education and connectivity (www.nationalhealthcareaco).

Dear Dr. Leviste:

I am pleased to inform you that I hereby reappoint you to the Commission for Community and Family Services for the term ending June 30, 2022. In order to complete the process as quickly as possible, there are several steps that must be taken, many of which require visiting City Hall. If you require parking during these procedures, please call Claudia Luna in my Office at (213) 978-0621 to make arrangements for you.

To begin the reappointment process, please review, sign and return the enclosed Remuneration Form, Undated Separation Forms, Background Check Release and Information Sheet within one week of receiving this letter. These documents are necessary to ensuring the most efficient, open and accountable City government possible.

As part of the City Council confirmation process, you will need to meet with Bob Blumenfield, your Councilmember, and Councilmember Gilbert Cedillo, the Chair of the Housing Committee, to answer any questions they may have. You will be hearing from a City Council committee clerk who will let you know when your reappointment will be considered by the Housing Committee. Some time thereafter, you will be notified by the committee clerk when your reappointment will be presented to the full City Council for confirmation. Once you are confirmed, you will be required to take the oath of office in the City Clerk's Office in Room 395 of City Hall. Claudia Luna will assist you during the confirmation process if you have questions.
