Comments for Public Posting: The city I was homeless in was Fullerton CA... they did not have shelter in the city but refered me to a city with a shelter. I refused many times after I did research on how they treat homeless, the condition of the facilities, and the people you are around.... my husband and I chose to live in our van, hidden away as much as possible from anyone that threatened our home (van). Let people choose their vehicle over a shelter... they are safer and can be healthier. But if they choose a shelter let them... but give people a choice and a chance at getting back on their feet. My husband and I are both in a rental home now. But we couldn't have done that if I was stuck in a shelter or on the streets. I was in the comfort of my van, my home, my sanctuary. Let us Live...in our cars or provide us small affordable housing.
