Transmittal Letter
May 22, 2019

Subject:
Enhanced Infrastructure Funding Districts
CF #14-1349-S2, CF #14-1349-S4

To All Interested Parties,

At a duly noticed Brown Act compliant meeting on May 21, 2019, the Board of Directors voted 7-1 in support of the Alliance of River Community's OPPOSITION to the motions contained in Los Angeles City Council Files #14-1349-S2 and #14-1349-S4 on the following, but not limited to, basis:

- Lack of transparency.
- Lack of community participation.
- Creation of an appointed Public Financing Authority w/o local or NC reps nor answer directly to stakeholders.
- Lack of a detailed Program Description.
- Lack of sensitivity and commitment by city officials to address the tangible impact on work-force communities.

Additionally, this transmittal shall serve as a formal request by the RVNC to the appropriate LA County office(s) for the opportunity to retain and/or review all County of Los Angeles' memos regarding the creation of an LA River Infrastructure Plan and EIUDs which have shown to be inclusive of work-force families.

Sincerely,
