LA Council:

I am a small business owner operating The Recyclist Bike Shop in Mar Vista who supports owners and operators of AirBnB and their independent businesses. The rental business is difficult enough without further enactment of regulation to obstruct the very essence of entrepreneurship. Please consider how much we need small businesses like the AirBnB to provide a valuable service to the community and in turn spread their benefits to all those business like mind who supports them.

Thank you for support and consideration,

Jimmy Chin
