Summary: The Los Feliz Neighborhood Council (LFNC), representing over 36,000 resident stakeholders, was engaged by our constituents and asked to study Council File 15-1138-S5 (Wesson–Harris-Dawson-Huizar) and the proposed consolidation into Council File No. 15-1138-S1 (Comprehensive Homeless Strategy). The Motion, considered and passed by the Homelessness and Poverty Committee, is relative to working with the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) to identify and provide proper services to homeless students in the City and to include LAUSD as a partner in the City's Comprehensive Homeless Strategy. We strongly support this motion in this CIS and in the attached resolution passed unanimously by the Los Feliz Neighborhood Council on March 15, 2016.
