PUBLIC SAFETY COMMITTEE REPORT relative to the first amendment to the contract with LexisNexis Claims Solutions, Inc. (LexisNexis) for enhancements to the Los Angeles Police Department's (LAPD) Community Online Reporting Service (CORS) and the Report Distribution Service (RDS).

Recommendation for Council action:

AUTHORIZE the Chief, LAPD, or designee, to negotiate and execute a first amendment to Contract No. C-126467 with LexisNexis for the purpose of adding $35,000 for enhancements to the CORS and the RDS, subject to the review and approval of the City Attorney as to form.

Fiscal Impact Statement: The City Administrative Officer (CAO) reports that no additional General Fund appropriation is required as the LAPD's operating budget will provide funding for the first amendment ($35,000) to this agreement with LexisNexis. Therefore, approval of this contract amendment complies with the City's Financial Policies in that budgeted funds are being used for one-time expenses.

Community Impact Statement: None submitted.

SUMMARY

At the meeting held on June 20, 2017, your Public Safety Committee considered a CAO report relative to the first amendment to the contract with LexisNexis for enhancements to the LAPD's CORS and RDS. The CAO reports that the first amendment would add $35,000 for the costs of programming three necessary modifications to the CORS system, which was purchased as a commercial off-the-shelf application without significant LAPD customizations in order to keep system costs low. Since the annual contract compensation of $60,000 covers licensing and maintenance fees only, the proposed modifications are an added cost to the contract. These modifications will improve the user experience for residents, reduce the review time for vandalism reports, and improve the LAPD's tracking of crime locations. After an opportunity for public comment was held, the Committee moved to approve the recommendation presented in the CAO transmittal, as detailed above. This matter is now forwarded to the Council for its consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,
