Dear Ms. Dickinson,

I have just found out that there is a proposed change to the house size allowed in Granada Hills, where I live and own my home. The new proposed limits would render my modest house barely compliant with the new rule and with no hope ever of adding a formal living room or to make any additions as our family grows. Yes, we have a small area where to fit a table right outside the kitchen, but no separate formal dining room. That is how modest our house is. So, if the new proposed size restrictions won't even allow us to do add enough space for that, it seems to me, those size restrictions do not make sense. Please communicate our opposition to the committee debating this matter.

Thanks,

Sandy Chavira
