DISCUSSION

This donation is for the benefit of the Los Angeles Police Department (Department). The Military Property Acquisition Team (MPAT), Mobile Command Response Unit (MCRU), Emergency Operations Division (EOD), is responsible for acquiring excess military property from the Department of Defense (DOD) under an existing agreement between the Department and the Federal Excess Property 1033 Program. The equipment will be used by various Department entities to enhance operational capabilities. There will be no continuing costs for supplies, service charges, fees, or operational maintenance. The value of the donated items is established by the DOD at the time of the original acquisition and do not necessarily reflect current market values.

No expressed or implied commitments or promises were made to the donor or representatives of the donor. The donor will not receive any preferential treatment, endorsement, or recommendation; and the donor is not allowed the use of any Department patents.

Administrative Services Bureau has reviewed the donation and determined that it has been submitted in accordance with Section 5.467 et seq. of the Los Angeles Administrative Code, which provides for the receipt and acceptance of donations to the Department.

The Honorable Board of Police Commissioners

TO: Commanding Officer, Administrative Services Bureau

FROM: Commanding Officer, Emergency Operations Division

SUBJECT: REQUEST TO ACCEPT DONATION

It is requested that the Administrative Services Bureau (ASB) approve and forward correspondence to the Board of Police Commissioners to accept the solicited donation in the attached Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) Excess Military Property Donation Inventory Report: August 2017. The donation is in the original value of $29,522.30 from the Department of Defense (DOD).

The Military Property Acquisition Team (MPAT), Mobile Command Response Unit (MCRU), Emergency Operations Division (EOD), is responsible for acquiring excess military property from the DOD under an existing agreement between the LAPD and the Federal 1033 Program.

The donations will not require continuing costs for supplies, service charges, fees, or operational maintenance. The donation is for the benefit of the LAPD. This equipment will be used by various LAPD entities to enhance operational capabilities.

The dollar values of the donated items on the attached inventory are established by the DOD at the time of the original acquisition by the DOD. The dollar values do not necessarily reflect the current market values for the donated property.

Additionally, the nomenclature of the items in the inventory are sometimes general and vague and are established by the DOD. Refer to the Excess Military Property Acquisition Report, Description of Items Received: August 2017 for a detailed explanation of a specific line item.

All possible conflicts of interest have been researched. No expressed or implied commitment or promise was made to the donor or representatives of the donor; the donor will not receive any preferential treatment, endorsement, or recommendation; and the donor is not allowed the use of any LAPD patent.

Commanding Officer, Administrative Services Bureau
