

The deadliest animals.

Average annual animal-caused fatalities in the U.S., 2001 to 2013

Sharks kill 1 person per year.

Alligators kill 1 person per year.

Bears kill 1 person per year.

Venomous snakes and lizards kill 6 people per year.

Spiders kill 7 people per year.

Non-venomous arthropods kill 9 people per year.

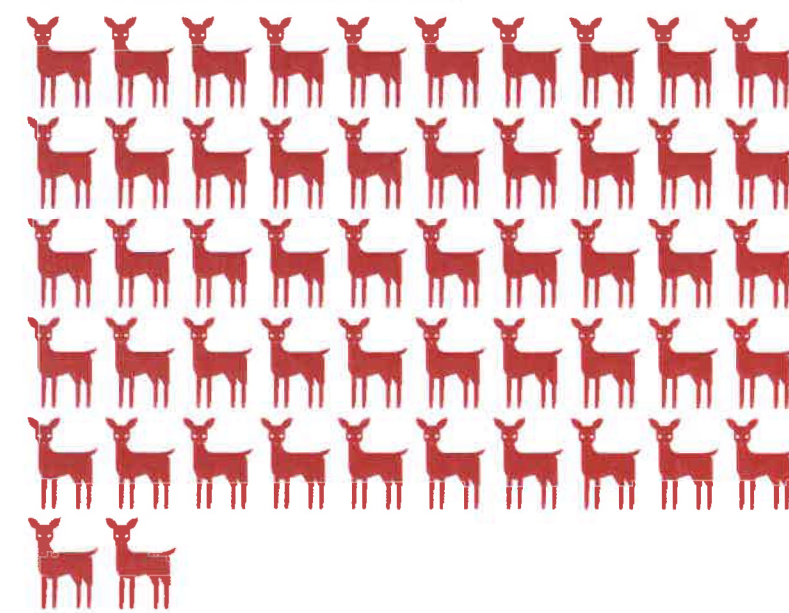

Cows kill 20 people per year.

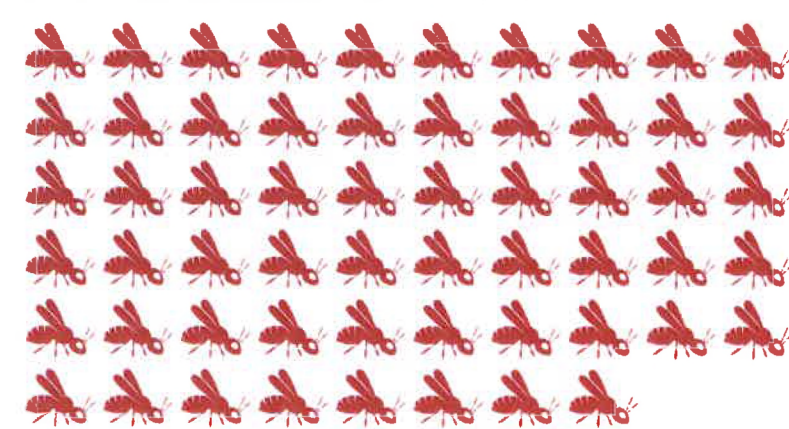

Dogs kill 28 people per year.

Other mammals kill 52 people per year.

Bees, wasps and hornets kill 58 people per year.

Date: 8/3/16
Submitted in PAW Committee
Council File No: 16-0525
Item No.: 16
Deputy: Adam R. Lid