Summary: The Historic Highland Park Neighborhood Council (HHPNC), which represents over 60,000 Los Angeles stakeholders who reside, own property, or conduct business in our neighborhood, want to express support for Council File 16-0596-S1, which aims to develop a coordinated comprehensive youth development strategy among City agencies and departments and with other jurisdictions, such as Los Angeles County and the Los Angeles Unified School District.

HHPNC believes that one of the most meaningful investments of public funds and resources the City of Los Angeles can undertake is in our youth. This investment in youth development should be focused on assisting youth to reach their full potential, to create safe neighborhoods and provide access to opportunities that prepare them for a thriving future. The City Council's directive to the City Administrative Officer (CAO) to form an Executive Task Force on Youth Development to establish a "City of Los Angeles Youth Development Strategy" is the first step in the right direction.

HHPNC recommends that said task force focus on establishing a department or office to oversee that funds, resources and all city agencies and departments, non-profits, community grassroots organizations and youth centers are effectively and efficiently communicating and working on improving the lives of young Angelenos and, in turn, creating citizenry and human capital necessary to contribute and benefit from the prosperity of Los Angeles. The Historic Highland Park Neighborhood Council therefore supports CF 16-0596-S1 and its delineated objectives.

Re: CIS in support of CF-16-0596-S1.

The Historic Highland Park Neighborhood Council (HHPNC), which represents over 60,000 Los Angeles stakeholders who reside, own property, or conduct business in our neighborhood, want to express support for Council File 16-0596-S1, which aims to develop a coordinated comprehensive youth development strategy among City agencies and departments and with other jurisdictions, such as Los Angeles County and the Los Angeles Unified School District.

HHPNC believes that one of the most meaningful investments of public funds and resources the City of Los Angeles can undertake is in our youth. This investment in youth development should be focused on assisting youth to reach their full potential, to create safe neighborhoods and provide access to opportunities that prepare them for a thriving future. The City Council's directive to the City Administrative Officer (CAO) to form an Executive Task Force on Youth Development to establish a "City of Los Angeles Youth Development Strategy" is the first step in the right direction.

Because it takes a village to foster and sustain positive youth development, the moment has come for the City of Los Angeles to analyze and address the systemic and socio-economic issues that affect youth, particularly Latinos and African-Americans, such as poverty, criminalization, homelessness and unemployment, to name a few. HHPNC recommends that said task force focus on establishing a department or office to oversee that funds, resources and all city agencies and departments, non-profits, community grassroots organizations and youth centers are effectively and efficiently communicating and working on improving the lives of young Angelenos and, in turn, creating citizenry and human capital necessary to contribute and benefit from the prosperity of Los Angeles. The Historic Highland Park Neighborhood Council therefore supports CF 16-0596-S1 and its delineated objectives.

Sincerely,

Harvey Slater, President
Historic Highland Park Neighborhood Council
