Summary: The Sylmar Neighborhood Council (SNC) is commenting on Council File #16-0917 which is related to the appointment of Eve Sinclair to the Board of Neighborhood Commissioners for the North Valley.

We believe that insofar as neighborhood councils in the subject district are not a part of the process, the process for appointments to BONC is flawed.

We request that upon receiving a recommendation from the Mayor, neighborhood councils in that district be notified right away so they could invite the appointee to a board meeting to ask him/her questions, inform the appointee of issues important to that particular neighborhood, and generally get to know the person that will be representing them on BONC. This would give the new Commissioner insight that he/she would not have otherwise.

Relative to the appointment of Eve Sinclair, we request that this be delayed so neighborhood councils in the North Valley can invite her to their September board meetings.
