Summary: This motion calls for quarterly reports from two very important agencies that lead the efforts to provide vital services and housing for homeless citizens in the City and County of Los Angeles.

It is important to measure successful outcomes of these programs. It is just as important to measure unsuccessful outcomes so necessary adjustments can be made to fix programmatic dysfunction.

Quarterly reports measure required outcomes. The measuring of required outcomes will demonstrate to the City Council and stakeholders the success or failure of programs and identify areas that can be celebrated or areas that need improvement.

West Hills Neighborhood Council strongly supports CF16-0986.
