Subject: CDR2 – What are the current blackout periods?

As pertaining to this matter added by *revision to a Special Rules Committee meeting, what is the current rule? What is the current applicable blackout period for 2017 City Council Elections?

ITEM NO. (6)
16-1099

Motion (Wesson - Martinez) relative to clarifying City rules to align with State law on electronic communications to allow for the public to be informed regarding City events, public safety emergencies, and other related duties and responsibilities, during election "blackout" periods.

Good afternoon,

This is to acknowledge receipt of your records request.

We will advise you if more time is needed beyond the standard 10-day requirement for a response and if any costs are involved.

Thank you.

Joe Buscaino has raised $273,287.62 for a primary election in March for which opposition may or may not appear. [See from who at bottom. Or at <https://ethics.lacity.org/>]

So, why did LADOT send out a weekly eblast notice featuring a photo of Mr. Buscaino? Any idea how valuable that would be for a non-incumbent? Heather?

This is a PRA for a PDF of all the email addresses to which weekly briefs from LADOT are sent.

LADOT Video: Crossing Guard Prevents Child Abduction

CD 13 Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell, LADOT General Manager Seleta Reynolds and Parking Enforcement Chief Greg Savelli and Captain LaTonya Allen recognize Crossing Guard Adrian Young, a 14 year veteran of the department, for her heroic actions preventing a child abduction from Alexandria Elementary School. Thanks to Ms. Young's quick reactions and move to 'mother mode', she was able to fend off the perpetrator, returning the little girl to the school grounds safely and unharmed. Crossing Guard Adrian Young we salute you!
