Summary:

At a regular meeting held on January 18, 2017, the PLUM Committee considered new regulations for single-family residential zoned properties. Staff from the DCP provided an overview of the proposed regulations. A representative from Council Districts Four, Five, 10 and 11 provided comments on the item. The City Attorney commented that the R1 Variation Zone needs to be incorporated with the single-family residential zoned properties. After an opportunity for public comment, the Committee recommended that City Attorney prepare a new Ordinance that will consolidate the Ordinance establishing new regulations for all single-family residential zoned properties (Council file No. 14-0656) with the draft Ordinance for the R1 Zone and RG Rear Detached Garage Supplemental Use District. This matter is now submitted to the Council for consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,
