

MOTION

I HEREBY MOVE that Council ADOPT the following recommendations relative to submitting to the voters a proposed General Obligation Bond Proposition, and a proposed Parcel Tax Proposition related to Homelessness and Housing; and, calling Special Elections on the Propositions and consolidating them with the State General Election to be held on November 8, 2016:

1. ADOPT the recommendations contained in the Rules, Elections, Intergovernmental Relations and Neighborhoods Committee Report.
2. ADOPT the accompanying revised RESOLUTION OF NECESSITY related to submitting a Homelessness Reduction and Prevention, Housing Facilities General Obligation Bond of $1.2 billion to the voters at the November 8, 2016 State General Election.
3. REQUEST the City Attorney, with regard to the parcel tax resolutions and ordinances, to report to Council tomorrow, June 29th, with documents reflecting the proper tax rate based on square footage of improvements that will generate approximately 90 million dollars and make all necessary changes. If the square footage of improvements is unavailable, then the City Attorney should report with the tax rate for square foot per parcel.
