Summary: The Arroyo Seco Neighborhood Council supports the City Council on actions to defend its status as a sanctuary city, stand up for the legal rights of immigrants in Los Angeles, and push back against attempts to cut municipal funding by the federal government by reaffirming its support for LAPD's Special Order 40, which prohibits city employees from participating in any kind of racial or religious registry, exploring free legal assistance at City facilities, determining its legal options to defend against federal funding cuts based upon its sanctuary city status, exploring options to backfill any federal funds cut from the city due to its sanctuary city status, and funding an immigration defense fund to ensure proper legal representation in immigration proceedings.
