Porter Ranch trail as Historic/Cultural Monument.

This sounds like it will block improvement to / development of Sierra Canyon School,
The plot of land west of Porter Ranch and north of Rinaldi

I'm not sure the historical significance here.

Is this at all part of el camino real ? Or something equivalent ? What's the archaeological significance ? Is there a strong reason to protect an old trail beyond outdoor use ? Does this specific layout of the trail need to be kept ? Can it be rerouted ? To allow development ?

Outdoor space is essential

The pavement could be cleaned up

Yeah, protect the trails around this community. That's a cool amenity. It's kind of like a golf course in the middle of a subdivision. Same kind of concept. I'd say protect it.

I'm just not sure the addressing is correct. 11200 goes up to the intersection of Rinaldi and Porter Ranch
