

ORDINANCE NO. 185989

An ordinance amending Subsection (a) of Section 87.55 of the Los Angeles Municipal Code to prohibit the parking of a vehicle displaying a “For Sale” sign or placard advertising the private sale of that vehicle on the following streets: east side of Irolo Street between Normandie Avenue and San Marino Street, and the west side of Normandie Avenue between San Marino Street and Normandie Avenue/Irolo Street; east side of South Western Avenue (State Route 213) within the City of Los Angeles between West 182nd Street and West Paseo Del Mar; both sides of Compton Avenue between East Century Boulevard and East 103rd Street; and both sides of 10th Avenue between the 1900 through 2200 blocks.

WHEREAS, the California Legislature enacted California Vehicle Code Section 22651.9, regulating vehicles left on the street with “For Sale” signs or placards, finding that the legislation was necessary to “alleviate the critical shortage of parking spaces in a city, county, and city and county, and to help reduce traffic hazards in those jurisdictions”;

WHEREAS, the California Legislature in California Vehicle Code Section 22651.9(a)(1) allows a local jurisdiction to impound a vehicle when it appears, because of a sign or placard on the vehicle, that the primary purpose of parking the vehicle at that location is to advertise to the public the private sale of that vehicle;

WHEREAS, there is a critical shortage of on-street parking places on certain streets in the City of Los Angeles;

WHEREAS, the critical parking shortage on certain City streets is exacerbated by people parking vehicles on these streets for the sole purpose of displaying the vehicles for private sale;

WHEREAS, the parking of multiple vehicles with “For Sale” signs occurs on City streets where there is a high volume of vehicular and pedestrian traffic, creating traffic hazards and traffic congestion along these streets;

WHEREAS, the parking of multiple vehicles with “For Sale” signs often creates blight and a public nuisance on the streets where they are parked, as the owners or agents of these vehicles often discard trash or other refuse on nearby residential lawns or business properties along the streets, resulting in confrontations between the residents or business owners and the owners of the “For Sale” vehicles;

WHEREAS, the conditions described above are occurring on the east side of Irolo Street between Normandie Avenue and San Marino Street, and on the west side of Normandie Avenue between San Marino Street and Normandie Avenue/Irolo Street;

WHEREAS, the conditions described above are occurring on the east side of South Western Avenue (State Route 213) within the City of Los Angeles between West 182nd Street and West Paseo Del Mar;

WHEREAS, the conditions described above are occurring on both sides of Compton Avenue between East Century Boulevard and East 103rd Street; and

WHEREAS, the conditions described above are occurring on 10th Avenue between the 1900 through 2200 blocks.
