Dear Councilman Krekorian:

I live in your district. I've been an active volunteer with L.A. Animal Services for 22 years, and I am a responsible pet owner.

I'm writing to urge the rescission of CF 17-1237-S1, which will do away with legal limits on the number of dogs and cats City residents can own. Aren't there enough problems with irresponsible pet owners, hoarders, backyard breeders, and dog fighting? I would support a pilot program to raise the limit on dogs to four and the limit on cats to six to see how it works, but doing away with all limits is incredibly irresponsible and just plain nuts. I can't believe you approved this abomination. What were you thinking?

I have signed and posted this on FB. I will share it widely.

I have written, in the comment section, "Some of us long term, good residents are not comfortable around a lot of dogs and cats. It is also not fair to the pets to keep them in restricted close quarters. Additionally, some of us, including myself, have high anxiety around all pets. It is necessary to have pet free areas so that those residents with high anxiety do not have to suffer on a daily basis.

Thank you.

Subject: Pet Dogs: LA Becomes a No-Limit City -- PLEASE also consider signing this petition.

A motion has been passed by Councilmen Paul Koretz and Bob Blumenfield which eliminates ALL limits on dogs in Los Angeles. The motion has now been sent to the City Attorney to be written into an ordinance. The following article will explain this in more detail. If you are concerned about this, please sign the PETITION below.

I am a dog lover, and have nothing against cats -- but I fervently hope that private homes will NOT be allowed to have an unlimited number. My concerns are noise, hygiene, "underground" breeding and sales, to name a few.
