Dear Council Members,

José Huizar, Marqueece Harris-Dawson, Mitchell Englander, Bob Blumenfield, Curren D. Price, Jr. - and PLUM Clerk Zina Cheng - and Council President Herb Wesson,

My wife and I live in The Mercury Building on Wilshire and Western. We love and enjoy Liberty Park almost every day. It's so rare to find open space in this part of Los Angeles. We're very disturbed at the idea that anybody would build another huge structure on what might be the only open space left in K-Town with grass and beautiful old trees.

Please, make sure this doesn't happen.

We'll be watching the outcome, closely, and we'll be there today, loud and proud, to make sure our protest is heard.

Thank you for your time on this!

all the best,

Amaryllis and Michael Steinberg
