Summary: Council File 18-0002-S126 Title: Department of Homeland Security (DHS) / Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds / Rule Change Position: Support Summary: The LFNC disagrees with the Department of Homeland Security's proposed rule change to determine admissibility into the United States based on the likelihood of an individual to become a "public charge" in the future. We believe this proposed rule to be classist, sexist, ageist, and ableist. Not only would the proposed rule create undue barriers to legal residency and citizenship, but it would discourage those in need from seeking assistance. The LFNC supports City action to oppose this rule change. November 20th, 2018 Governing Board Meeting Item 10.C.iv

COMMUNITY IMPACT STATEMENT

Council File 18-0002-S126

Title: Department of Homeland Security (DHS) / Inadmissibility on Public Charge Grounds / Rule Change

Position: Support

Summary: The LFNC disagrees with the Department of Homeland Security's proposed rule change to determine admissibility into the United States based on the likelihood of an individual to become a "public charge" in the future.

We believe this proposed rule to be classist, sexist, ageist, and ableist.

Not only would the proposed rule create undue barriers to legal residency and citizenship, but it would discourage those in need from seeking assistance.

The LFNC supports City action to oppose this rule change.
