RE:LETTER OFSUPPORT for TEMPORARY
HOMELESS SUPPORT HOUSING IN KOREATOWN

682 S. VERMONT AVENUE – COUNCIL FILE NO. 18-0392

Dear Council President Wesson:

I live at 117 Bimini Place, 90004, about 6 blocks from the proposed shelter. For the past few years the numbers of people living on the sidewalks has increased in our neighborhood. I am the person who sweeps the street around our buildings and often have to sweep human feces off the street and out of the gardens. The sidewalks reek from urine and are littered with food that has been scavenged from a near-by dumpster. There are also discarded syringes & bottles of drugs.

We are surrounded by 3 schools & a community center, so we have a lot of children & families walking through the potentially hazardous mess, We get to know a lot of the people who are living rough and it's really distressing when the police com and make them move. It's distressing when I know there's really no place for them to go. So I support the housing shelter proposed for Vermont Ave.

Thank you,

Carol Springer
