

MOTION INFORMATION, TECHNOLOGY AND GENERAL SERVICE.

The Los Angeles Police Museum is located at 6045 York Boulevard in Highland Park. The museum is located in the former Northeast Division station of the Los Angeles Police Department. In 1994, the city executed a lease agreement with the Los Angeles Police Historical Society, Inc. for the operation and use of the facility.

As part of the original lease conditions, the Los Angeles Police Historical Society, Inc. was to provide meeting space to the public and community groups for meetings and other gatherings. Due to the lease being developed over 20 years ago, the current lease conditions are not consistent with the needs of the community at large. The lease needs to be renegotiated in order to ensure that the building is safe and usable by the public.

I THEREFORE MOVE that the Department of General Services be instructed to renegotiate the existing lease of the Old Northeast LAPD Station by the Los Angeles Police Historical Society, Inc. for a new 30 year term that includes increased use of the facility for community purposes while ensuring that any space to be used by the public is safe and accessible.
