RE: City budget priorities for 2018-2019

Dear Mayor Garcetti:

On March 13, 2018 our Board voted 10-0-0 to recommend the following areas as priorities for the 2018-2019 City budget. These priorities are based on the needs which our stakeholders have brought to us at meetings and via telephone calls and e-mail:

- Animal Services – increased funding for the collection of stray animals and for the reduction of feral cats (throughout the Harbor Gateway North area-see map)

- Bureau of Sanitation – increased funding for the repair, paving, maintenance of alleys
  1) alley west of Ainsworth from 156th to Redondo Beach Blvd.
  2) alley north of 129th Street and south of El Segundo Blvd. between Menlo Avenue and Hoover Street
  3) alley south of 126th Street and north of Laconia between Vermont Avenue and Ainsworth

- Bureau of Sanitation – increased funding for weekly street cleaning in areas that have not previously had posted cleanings
  Districts 1, 2, 3, and 6 of the Harbor Gateway North Neighborhood Council area-see map

- Bureau of Sanitation - increased funding for street cleaning along major streets
  1) Vermont Avenue from 168th Street to 113th Street
  2) Figueroa Street from Redondo Beach Blvd. to El Segundo Blvd.
