Comments for Public Posting: I come to Los Angeles every fall from North Carolina to take pictures and spend money for several days. I CANNOT BELIEVE you are taking away my AirBnB options that I love so dearly. Please hold off on these ordinances until they can be amended and made fair. Are you in the pockets of the hotel lobby? LA is one of the premier destinations in America, and the varied short term rentals offer accommodations and views and experiences that are unique. I'm coming Nov 2-7 and all the places I want to stay are in limbo or not taking reservations! Please reconsider and take into account the hard-working taxpayers who have spent their time and money to be amazing, ambassadors for your city. This is simply not right. Thanks for your consideration.

Comments for Public Posting: I am the owner of a four-plex in Venice. I live in one unit and rent out the other three short-term. I've done this since I bought the building. I have been relying on income from short-term rentals from my other 3 units for over 10 years. This is how I support my family. I will not be able to afford my mortgage payment and will lose my building, my home, and all of my income if this ordinance is not amended to allow owner-occupied RSO units to host. Please I are not the problem! We are just Angelenos trying to get by and raise a family.
