Comments for Public Posting: I own a duplex in Silverlake which is an RSO building. I am disabled and rely on the income from Airbnb to pay mortgage and medical bills. I was recently approached by a developer asking if i plan on selling my duplex. My initial reaction was no however i'm beginning to give it a second thought. I understand that developers are looking to build in these neighborhoods and its sad that the home i love could possibly be torn down to put in new condo's or apartments. The new STR laws are a loose/loose to the city and homeowner. Please reconsider allowing me to continue doing STR. If you allowed me to continue i would be able to register and it would be a win/win for both. Please pass this so i can legally continue to list my property on Airbnb Thank You
