Rita Moreno,

Dear Councilmember O'Farrell,

Los Angeles is a housing crisis, worsened by the thousands of units on the market that have become short-term rentals. After years of discussion, Los Angeles' ordinance on homesharing finally went into effect. I am outraged by Councilmember' O'Farrell's attempt to weaken the critical protection of rent controlled units in the ordinance. The policy will make enforcement more difficult by erasing the bright line protecting rent stabilized units. I urge you to withdraw your support and allow the current policy to work in protecting our housing, particularly rent-stabilized housing from being transformed into de-facto hotels.

Your and the mayor's pimping of our city has created or at least exacerbated this problem. When will enough be enough? When you have homeless encampments on your lawn(s)? Because that will most likely happen a lot sooner than you think.

Rita Moreno,

Dear Councilmember O'Farrell,

Los Angeles is in a housing crisis. You know this, so act like it. Your attempt to weaken protection of rent controlled units sends a message to renters (that is, lower income folks, who are, as you know, disproportionately people of color and/or from other marginalized communities): Los Angeles is not for you. Withdraw your support and allow the current policy to work in protecting our housing. Stand with renters. In fact, take it one step further. Stand with folks experiencing homelessness too. We will remember when you don't and hold you accountable for it. Housing is a human right, and you have an opportunity here to begin to recognize that and continue to make it a reality here in Los Angeles.
