Rita Moreno,

Dear Councilmember O'Farrell,

Los Angeles is a housing crisis, worsened by the thousands of units on the market that have become short-term rentals. After years of discussion, Los Angeles' ordinance on homesharing finally went into effect. I am outraged by Councilmember' O'Farrell's attempt to weaken the critical protection of rent controlled units in the ordinance. The policy will make enforcement more difficult by erasing the bright line protecting rent stabilized units. I urge you to withdraw your support and allow the current policy to work in protecting our housing, particularly rent-stabilized housing from being transformed into de-facto hotels.

Rita Moreno,

Dear Councilmember O'Farrell,

I wish the city cared is much about the people that lived here as much as tourists and absentee landlords. In my small twelve unit rent stabilized building in Hollywood we had 7 airbnb landlords that made a complete nightmare to live in with constant calls to the police with the nonstop noise, violent confrontations among drug traffickers, domestic violence etc. It took two years to get them all out with the last two just going in the last two weeks. Not a single one actually lived here and that will absolutely be the case of this ordinance passes. The city does not have either the infrastructure or the money to provide proper oversight. Meanwhile we're in the middle of a gigantic housing crisis. Families and working people could have been living in those units.

Los Angeles is in a housing crisis, worsened by the thousands of units on the market that have become short-term rentals. After years of discussion, Los Angeles' ordinance on homesharing finally went into effect. I am outraged by Councilmember O'Farrell's attempt to weaken the critical protection of rent controlled units in the ordinance.
