Comments for Public Posting: I oppose the inclusion of duplex's being included in the airbnb ban. I have a neighbor (an older couple in their late 60's) who bought a duplex and rents out one side as an airbnb so they can pay their mortgage on the property. She likes to have it available to all of her family who come to visit Los Angeles frequently. I think this law hurts regular people like this who are just trying to make ends meet.
