Comments for Public Posting: Hi, I am a retired senior living on a fix income. The only asset I have worth anything is my home. Because I have a little guest house on the property I am technically RSO. I am not a huge corporation throwing people on the street so I can build luxury apartments all over the city, I am just an old man who relies on my Airbnb rental. If you include owner occupied RSO properties like mine, ADU and Duplex, in the amendment I can continue to live out my life in my home with my little Airbnb money I desperately depend on. If you don't I will be forced to probably live on the streets because my taxes and health bills make it too expensive to live in LA. Thank You, Bill
