Comments for Public Posting: A Bridge Home is desperately needed at this location. I do street outreach to people experiencing homelessness right there on Aetna Street and it's heartbreaking. Most of the people living there are severely disabled and disproportionately people of color. One rainy night last December I counted seven people in wheelchairs trying to sleep unsheltered within 2 blocks of the Orange Line and Van Nuys Boulevard. Thank you for your support and leadership to address this humanitarian crisis next to the Civic Center. Please approve an accelerated timeline to make this happen.

Comments for Public Posting: Van Nuys: the fucking DUMPING GROUND of the Valley. It should be the crown jewel instead. But the City is on lockdown, so party on. You know you can do whatever you want and will do it. Even the Federal Court is on lockdown. The Courts are closed till June 30, at least or maybe longer. The $$$ will dry up, however, and when Martial Law ends, there will be some folks wondering WTF. So WTF? No worries, just do it and enjoy the freedom to do whatever you desire. I'm sure it's a real fun thing to be able to do. Wish I could be there, but the Public can't even enter the building that taxpayer funds are used to keep the lights on.
