Comments for Public Posting: I need to go through the Gower underpass every day to take my 2.5 year old to school and it is incredibly scary. I am very sympathetic to how the system has failed people and enabled a situation where we have people who need serious psychiatric attention living on the streets, but we have witnesses public urination & defecation, harassment, exposed genitals, and fighting. Not being able to camp within 500 feet of a school...especially a pre-school, seems incredibly reasonable.

Comments for Public Posting: I don't feel safe in my home town anymore because of the homeless encampments that are being allowed basically anywhere and everywhere.
